PNEUMONIA STRIKES BARRINGTON HOMES

Joanette Thier, and Nella J. Schmetzke Latest Victims of the Terrible Disease

The announcement of the death of Mrs. Joannette Thier, daughter of Mrs. J. Thier, of Grove avenue, early last Friday morning came as a shock to a large circle of friends, many of whom were last known that she was ill. She had been ill only a few days, pneumonia setting in on Thursday and she died the following morning.

Miss Thier received her education in the Barrington public schools and had lived here nearly all her life. She was the only child of her mother up to the time of her death, which occurred two weeks ago. Since then she had been a faithful housekeeper for her father. She was, however, a very capable woman and a large collection of beautiful china.

"Spokes" and the Swift "Wheel"

What would you consumers think of a wheel without spokes?

What would you think of a man who would take you or all of the spokes out of a wheel to make it run better?

Swift & Company's business of getting fresh milk to you is a wheel, the which the packing plant is the only hub. Retail dealers are the rim—and Swift & Company Branch Houses are the spokes.

The hub wouldn't do the wheel much good and you wouldn't have much use for hub or rim if it weren't for the spokes that fit them all together to make a wheel of it.

Swift & Company Branch Houses are placed, after thorough investigation, in centers where they can be successfully operated and do the most good for the most people at the least possible cost.

The "Spoke" is in charge of a man, who knows that it is there to keep you supplied at all times with meat, sweet and fresh; and who knows that if he doesn't do it, his competitor will.

How much good would the hub and the rim of the Swift "Wheel" do you if the spokes were done away with?

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Convert Bonds Into $15 Issue

The bond department of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago calls attention to the fact that only one week is left for the public to convert its holdings of 4 per cent Liberty bonds into 4 1/2 per cent bonds (of the respective issues). The privilege of conversion expires Nov. 5.

As pointed out by an officer of the bank, the converted 4 1/2 per cent bonds carry all the privileges of both classes of 4s and may be also used to pay interest on Liberty bonds. This privilege does not extend to the 4s.

Holdings of the 4 per cent bonds should present them for conversion to the bank from which they were purchased.

The 1 per cent bonds cannot be converted after Nov. 3 even if bonds of a higher rate of interest are issued thereafter.

Do not wait until the last day at which will be too late; the banks are required to deliver the bonds to the Treasury before Jan. 1, 1919.

November 3. Take your bonds to the bank today.

"His services in the House were of the highest possible character. He discharged his duties, and was sustained, as by a desire to do the public good."—Governor Lowden.

"Mr. De Young is a man of absolute integrity and exceptional ability."—Former Speaker Sherman.

"He made a record unsurpassed by any member of the General Assembly."

Republicans of Illinois!

THE welfare of your country, the honor of your State and prudent regard for your own personal interests, all call you to vote next Tuesday, November 5, for these Republican candidates:

For United States Senator—William McCormick
For Congressman-at-Large—William E. Hanson and Richard Yates

For State Treasurer—Fred E. Sterling
For Sup't. of Public Instruction—Francis C. Blair
For University Trustees—Margaret Day Blake, Cairo Trimble and John M. Herbert

It is equally important that you vote for Republican congressional, legislative and county candidates, to maintain, throughout the war, and afterward, the civilian morale and the efficient management of State and local affairs already established by Republican officials.

The great war to preserve Christian Civilization must be WON. America is in the war for that purpose. To end the war in a basis that would forfeit her reputation in inconsequence by negotiation or compromise is not to be thought of.

To achieve this unmitigated end, a Republican Congress—a Congress Republican in both branches—is essential. The imperative necessity of it is written on every page of Congressional history since America entered the war. Intelligent forecast of the future confirms it.

By Republican votes in Congress, and only by Republican votes, America organized and armed for war in 1917. When Senators and Representatives of the President's party hesitated, quibbled and wobbled, Republicans were steadfast, and the aggressive patriotism which they expressed by word and vote in the halls of Congress was met with cold steel at Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel, St. Quentin and the Argonne.

Now, with a victorious army in the field shoulder events day by day at home are emphasizing the imperative need of more Republicans in Congress—of a Republican majority in both House and Senate—whose courage, determination and tradition will be a guaranty that America's part in the war shall not be lost.

At issue in this election, too, is approval or disapproval of the splendidly loyal record of Illinois, in word and deed, under the inspiring leadership of Governor Lowden. And then the future—war problems and after-the-war problems of tremendous import.

For sixty years the Republican party has been the constructive party of State and Nation. Now, as never before in history, the interests of ALL the people demand that the constructive policy and constructive ability of the Republican party be employed in both State and Nation. The only means to that end lies in the election of Republican candidates named above and their fellow Republican candidates for the Legislature and County offices.

Power for the War Only

To make popular government capable of self defense, we have swung far in granting excess power to the Administration. It was necessary, and most of these grants were made for the period of the war alone. They would be intolerable in peace; would be a perversion of every ideal of representative popular government.

We have a right to assume the automatic resumption of the normal state, but power is seldom surrendered with the same willingness with which it is granted in the hour of great emergency.

Vote Constructively

The election next November 5th will be one of the most important in American history. Upon the successful party will fall the responsibility of solving the vital questions of reconstruction. If you have never voted the Republican ticket, you should vote it now.

It becomes more apparent each day that the nation must look to the Republican party to bring the government back to the limitations and principles of the Constitution, establish constructive policies and set the nation's feet once more firmly on the path of progress.
