Reduction in Telephone Installation Charges

The majority of the public is invited to the meeting at the Postmaster General of the service connection charges embodied in letter No. 1930, dated August 19, 1918.

Effective December 1, 1918, the following service connection charges cover all classes of telephone service, and apply to both new installation and moves from one address to another.

Where new line and telephone phone must be connected $3.50

Where there is a line and telephone on the premises, which can be used without change $1.50

In the case of all new customers, service connection charges are payable in advance of the establishment of service.

Marguerite Clark stars in two parts in Uncle Tom's Cabin at the auditorium. There are 1,000 seats in the eye-catcher. Don't miss this great success.

Quite a bit of excitement prevailed Sunday evening at the Auditorium. A hot boiler over and exploded a gasoline tank used as a heater near the entrance to the auditorium. Large volumes of black smoke soon filled the air. The fire department, for a time it'd seemed as though a serious explosion had occurred. An alarm was given and the fire department, but later notified not to come. No damage of any great extent was done. The fire was put out by workers on an adjacent building.
