

The regular monthly meeting of the Village Board will take place next Monday evening at the village hall.

Mrs. Carrie A. Kendall will sell her household goods at auction next week and will announce the date. Watch for them.

Miss Lucile Robertson, who has been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. H. E. K. Kline, for the past several weeks, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. E. D. Kimball returned to her home at Wauconda Tuesday after a few days' stay with her son, Mr. Robert B. Kimball, a Rockford lawyer.

Rev. J. M. Williams of Illinois, left for his home yesterday morning, after spending a short time here with his mother, Mrs. A. B. Williams.

Miss Stella Schellinger, graduate of Cornell University, arrived this week in Chicago, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. Phalen.

Captain Roberton of Kentucky and Lieutenant Callum of Philadelphia, Pa., were here Saturday afternoon, and Mrs. G. A. Lyon on Wednesday last week.

A. Gallagher, employee of the Public Service Company, was here Saturday evening. Charles Lipford is still in the Fireman's building and will move there about the first of October.

Mrs. A. H. Gleason and daughter, Helen, who have been visiting with Mrs. Gleason's brother, George C. Sollner, at Wauconda, are now back to resume home Saturday.

Mrs. Jessie Graham of St. Peter's, Barrington, Pa., and Mrs. Carrie Ladd of Chicago, were here Saturday evening, and Mrs. G. A. Lyon on Wednesday last week.

Dr. E. A. Berman and family have moved from the E. C. Tilles home on Grove Avenue to the Charles Johnson house on North Main Street. This family have moved into their own home.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tilles on Saturday at the Peterson home on Cedar Street. Sunday morning, August 23, Mr. and Mrs. Tilles and their daughter, Mrs. V. D. Kilmull of Wauconda.

Mrs. George Seebert has sold her residence on High Street to Mrs. Ernestine Kettner, who has moved to the Peterson home on Cedar Street. Sunday morning, August 23, Mr. and Mrs. Kettner and Mrs. V. D. Kilmull of Wauconda.

Mrs. George Seebert has purchased a residence at Elgin and will move there Saturday morning.

Mrs. Nettie E. Flegel and son, Wm. Flegel, and Mrs. Flegel's mother, Mrs. Margaret Flegel, have moved to the urban home Saturday. They are residing in the Moonbeam residence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. George Willmar, and Mrs. Edie Parker, Mrs. Meyer's mother, made a short trip to Wauconda last week, leaving here Thursday morning and returning Saturday.

The annual McFerrin country fair opened Saturday evening at the fair grounds, not attracting the usual attendance from this village, owing to the fact that the fair was well publicized in the village, this year.

Frank C. Clark, former employee of the Review, who recently moved from Wauconda, spent the fore part of the week at the latter part of the week. He visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tilles at their home in Tex, to see the Rev. D. Baltzer, in Kansas City he stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meister, son of William Meister of this village.

Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Kimberly and daughter, Georgia, returned to Wauconda Saturday evening after a short vacation trip to Canada, where they visited the city of Toronto, and also Chicago, where they will get in touch with the propertors of the Canadian lumber yards, especially, to do so.

Rev. H. Tietke, pastor of St. Paul's church, who is spending the summer at the beach, will be here part of the week. He visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tilles at their home in Tex, to see the Rev. D. Baltzer, in Kansas City he stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meister, son of William Meister of this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Billings, father and daughter, left for a motor trip to Canada, where they visited the city of Toronto, and also Chicago, where they will get in touch with the propertors of the Canadian lumber yards, especially, to do so.

Frederick Schwem, recently sold his forty-seven acre farm east of the village limits to Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Kanner of Wauconda. The Kanners, makers of hardware specialties, will move to the farm and will be away, making the trip in four days, to the city of Chicago, where they will visit Mr. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billings, who are now living in the city, where they will visit Mr. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Billings, farm manager for the Hawthorne Farms company.

A number of members of the Goshen club of Wauconda have been to the fair with Miss Nathalie Gilpin, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin, parents of Mr. and Mrs. Billings. The members of the club, who are mostly young, are quite pleased with the fair.

The expenses at Elgin will be paid in full and will be charged to the expense account of the club, and the members will be entertained at the fair.

The members of the club will be entertained at the fair, and will be entertained at the fair.

Frederick Schwem, recently sold his forty-seven acre farm east of the village limits to Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Kanner of Wauconda. The Kanners, makers of hardware specialties, will move to the farm and will be away, making the trip in four days, to the city of Chicago, where they will visit Mr. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billings, who are now living in the city, where they will visit Mr. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Billings, farm manager for the Hawthorne Farms company.

VOLUME 35, NUMBER 35

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS: THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 1919

$2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

CHAUTAUQUA BRINGS MANY GOOD SPEAKERS

Opens Next Monday For Five Days' Engagement

BOWMAN'S BUY EMPLOYES TICKETS
FOR GOOD PROGRAM

Lectures on Business, Child Welfare and Reconstruction Form Part of Good Program

The Rockford chautauqua opens next Monday in a big tent at Sprague's park.
Here is the program, day by day:

First Day
Afternoon
Introductory exercises.
Grand concert by Dunbar Male quartet.

Evening
Concert—Dunbar Male quartet.
Lectures—Amelia Earhart, Glenn
Wood T. Baldwin.

Second Day
Afternoon
Grand Concert—Lombard Singers
and Elfrida.

Evening
Concert—Lombard singers and entertainers.
Lectures—The Romance of Oscar—E. Bohmeyer.

Third Day
Afternoon
Concert—Caroline Pinckney.
Lectures—Mrs. Yost, pianist.
Lectures—Charles and Elsie Horn.

Fourth Day
Afternoon
Concert—The Melodic Concert
Company.

Lectures—The Melodic Concert
Company—Vocal and Musical
Duet—D. E. T. Happen.

Fifth Day
Afternoon
Concert—Vocal and Musical Duet—Lectures—The American of Concert—Mrs. St. John, Red Cross.

Grand Concert—The Stetler Concert
Company.

Evening
Concert—The Melodic Concert
Company—Vocal and Musical
Duet—Lectures—The American of Concert—Mrs. St. John, Red Cross.

"It Pays to Advertise"—a delightful American comedy presented by a company of eight.

The program indicates that the chautauqua is presenting some worthwhile lectures, and the lighter part of the program is designed to attract the adult's ticket of ten admissions, purchased singly, will cost nearer $1.00 than $1.25, and the average boy to buy a season ticket.

They can be purchased at most of the convenience stores in the chautauqua.

In general, the expenses of the chautauqua are to be charged to the committee of the chautauqua concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tilles, who are spending the summer at the beach, will be here part of the week.

He visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tilles at their home in Tex, to see the Rev. D. Baltzer, in Kansas City he stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meister, son of William Meister of this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Billings, father and daughter, left for a motor trip to Canada, where they visited the city of Toronto, and also Chicago, where they will get in touch with the propertors of the Canadian lumber yards, especially,
to do so.

Frederick Schwem, recently sold his forty-seven acre farm east of the village limits to Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Kanner of Wauconda. The Kanners, makers of hardware specialties, will move to the farm and will be away, making the trip in four days, to the city of Chicago, where they will visit Mr. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billings, who are now living in the city, where they will visit Mr. Billings'
parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Billings, farm manager for the Hawthorne Farms
company.

A number of members of the Goshen
club of Wauconda have been to the fair with Miss Nathalie Gilpin, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin, parents of Mr. and Mrs. Billings. The members of the club, who are mostly young, are quite pleased with the fair.

The expenses at Elgin will be paid in full
and will be charged to the expense account
of the club, and the members will be entertained at the fair.

The members of the club will be entertained
at the fair, and will be entertained at the fair.

Frederick Schwem, recently sold his
forty-seven acre farm east of the
village limits to Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Kanner
of Wauconda. The Kanners, makers of hardware specialties, will move to the farm and will be away, making the trip in
four days, to the city of Chicago, where they will visit Mr. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billings, who are now living in the city, where they will visit Mr. Billings'
parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Billings, farm
manager for the Hawthorne Farms
company.

A number of members of the Goshen
club of Wauconda have been to the fair with Miss Nathalie Gilpin, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin, parents
of Mr. and Mrs. Billings. The members of the club, who are mostly young, are quite
pleased with the fair.

The expenses at Elgin will be paid in full
and will be charged to the expense account
of the club, and the members will be entertained at the fair.

The members of the club will be entertained
at the fair, and will be entertained at the fair.

Frederick Schwem, recently sold his
forty-seven acre farm east of the
village limits to Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Kanner
of Wauconda. The Kanners, makers of hardware specialties, will move to the farm and will be away, making the trip in
four days, to the city of Chicago, where they will visit Mr. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billings, who are now living in the city, where they will visit Mr. Billings'
parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Billings, farm
manager for the Hawthorne Farms
company.

A number of members of the Goshen
club of Wauconda have been to the fair with Miss Nathalie Gilpin, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin, parents
of Mr. and Mrs. Billings. The members of the club, who are mostly young, are quite
pleased with the fair.

The expenses at Elgin will be paid in full
and will be charged to the expense account
of the club, and the members will be entertained at the fair.

The members of the club will be entertained
at the fair, and will be entertained at the fair.

Frederick Schwem, recently sold his
forty-seven acre farm east of the
village limits to Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Kanner
of Wauconda. The Kanners, makers of hardware specialties, will move to the farm and will be away, making the trip in
four days, to the city of Chicago, where they will visit Mr. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billings, who are now living in the city, where they will visit Mr. Billings'
parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Billings, farm
manager for the Hawthorne Farms
company.

A number of members of the Goshen
club of Wauconda have been to the fair with Miss Nathalie Gilpin, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin, parents
of Mr. and Mrs. Billings. The members of the club, who are mostly young, are quite
pleased with the fair.

The expenses at Elgin will be paid in full
and will be charged to the expense account
of the club, and the members will be entertained at the fair.

The members of the club will be entertained
at the fair, and will be entertained at the fair.

Frederick Schwem, recently sold his
forty-seven acre farm east of the
village limits to Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Kanner
of Wauconda. The Kanners, makers of hardware specialties, will move to the farm and will be away, making the trip in
four days, to the city of Chicago, where they will visit Mr. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billings, who are now living in the city, where they will visit Mr. Billings'
parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Billings, farm
manager for the Hawthorne Farms
company.

A number of members of the Goshen
club of Wauconda have been to the fair with Miss Nathalie Gilpin, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin, parents
of Mr. and Mrs. Billings. The members of the club, who are mostly young, are quite
pleased with the fair.

The expenses at Elgin will be paid in full
and will be charged to the expense account
of the club, and the members will be entertained at the fair.

The members of the club will be entertained
at the fair, and will be entertained at the fair.

CAMPMEETING IS WELL ATTENDED

Meetings in Progress All This Week

Bishop Hell III, Unable to Be Present

The 46th annual campmeeting of the United Evangelical campmeeting was held here last Friday evening with an audience of 1,500 persons.

On Saturday morning, Rev. H. H. Keane
of Rockford presided.

The presiding elder, Rev. H. H. Keane
of Rockford, presided.

On Sunday morning, Rev. W. D. Dill,
D. D. of Allentown, Pa., one of the prominent special preachers, addressed the audience.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

He accepted the resolution of the
campmeeting that accepted resolutions on
the program.

SCHOOL TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 8TH

Getting In Readiness for Coming School Year

TEACHERS ARE ALL ENGAGED

Improvements Are Being Made Preparatory to Opening—High School Principal in Rockford Hospital

Superintendent Roman S. Smith of the local public schools, begins his tenth year in that capacity, has been busy since his return from the summer vacation.

He has been engaged in the preparatory work for the opening of the school year.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

The fall full complement of teachers
has been secured and the school
is now in full operation.

CONTEST PIGS WILL EXHIBIT HERE

Boys' and Girls' Porkmakin' Pigs
Will Be Shown Here September 2nd

—Then at Fair

It is announced by The Porkmakin' Herd that the Porkmakin' Pigs will be exhibited at the fair.

The front room of Leonor's garage will be used for the contest.

The United Evangelical campmeeting will be held in the front room of Leonor's garage.

The exhibit will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

There will be a grand competition
in the contest.

ROADS ASSOCIATION FORMED THIS WEEK

A. W. Meyer Is President; E. L.
Virden Secretary

BHETING PLANNED NEXT WEEK

Organization Formed With Twenty-
Seven Members Ready

Will Promote Hard Roads

At a meeting held at the men's club room Monday evening the organization was formed, with A. W. Meyer, president, and
E. L. Virden, secretary.

The meeting started out at the village hall, which was large enough to accommodate the number present.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project of

building a road between Barrington
and Libertyville, which will be
known as the Barrington-Libertyville
road.

It was the purpose of the
organization to promote hard
roads, to which end the members
had selected the project

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Many local people attended the Elkhorn Festival Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. Thoren of Chicago spent Saturday and Sunday at their home.

With Mrs. Thoren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schlagel.

Miss Jessie Horn of Crystal Lake, Mrs. Charles H. Schatz of Elkhorn, Mr. Albert Schulz and two children of Naperville are visiting the town.

Second-Hand CARS For Sale

One Ford Roadster

(Late 1917 Model)

Two Ford Touring Cars

One Oakland—5-Passenger

One Studebaker—7-Passenger

All Cars in Excellent Condition

H. S. BORROUGHS

Phone Barrington 9

Moline Universal

One Man Tractor

Every farmer should have a Moline Universal Tractor because it is a One Man Machine, and you ride on the machine you use no matter what same is—plow, mower, harvester or any other implement. This machine is on display at our Garage and we would be glad to explain anything about same which you would care to know.

THE IDEAL GARAGE

MEISTER & NOFTZ, Props.

Henrietta Conrad

American Dramatic Soprano

Harold H. Yates, Pianist and Accompanist

Third Night REDPATH Chautauqua

Miss Conrad has scored notable successes in New York, Philadelphia and other musical centers.

The coming of this talented American Artist is an event in the musical circles of any community.

Just One Attraction of the Big Five Days' Program

Barrington, Sept. 1 to 5.

Season Tickets for All Five Days
$2.00 Plus 10 per cent War Tax

Mrs. Schulz's sister, Miss Emma, Mrs. William Mainstreet.

All returning service men should be present at the meeting to be convened to discuss the organization of local chapter of the American Legion.

The chautauqua committee wants you to come to the meeting. It is cheaper for you, and will help the committee to have a chautauqua for another year. You can get them at most any business house.

AUCTION

WM. FEDERER, Auctioneer
I will sell the following described property at public sale on my farm, situated 4½ miles northwest of Barrington, on the corner of Main and Church streets, formerly owned by H. Brinley, deceased.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1919

Commence at 1:00 O'clock

One Team of Horses

One Cow, dry, will be about

Seventy-five Chickens, last year's.

Machinery, Tools, Etc.

Walking Tractor, Salky Plow,

Hand Cultivator,

Spring Wagon,

Two Horses, Corn Planter,

Blacksmith Shop,

McCracken Corn Binder,

McCracken Mower, No. 6,

McCormick Mower, No. 6,

Hay State (4 swath),

Barley Wagon,

Farm Wagons, wood tire,

Manure Wagon, steel tire,

Two Horses, Corn Planter,

One Stack of Turnips and Clover,

One Stack of Alfalfa, about 4 tons,

Alfalfa in barn, about 20 tons,

One stack of hay, about 40 bales,

For team, foot-power emery,

One stack of hay, about 40 bales,

Four-lime potato fork,

Shovel, bucket, two, two zinc wash tubs, one zinc wash tub, one granite granite bucket (2½ gallons), one basket (2½ gallons) zinc bucket (2 gallons).

Terms: All sums of $10 or over will be paid in advance, and the time on good approved notes at six per cent, and the property returned until settled fully.

CHAS. HILL.

$10,000 STOCK OF GOODS

FOR SALE—At public auction

Froehlich & Black, Auctioneers.

On account of the death of my husband, and having decided to close up, I will offer at public auction, without reserve, at my store

909 Main Street.

Question's Corners

1½ miles northeast of Lake Zurich and 1½ miles north of Palatine, on the Raue road.

Tuesday, September 2d commence at 12:30 o'clock sharp.

The big stock consists of:

Dry Goods, 1000 items.

Food Goods, 1000 items.

Linens, 1000 items.

House Goods of all kinds,

Whips, Horse and Buggy, Paint,

Clothes and Glass.

Stock Foods.

Novelties and big stock of other articles too numerous to mention.

Come early.

The place for dealers and others to get bargains in large or small quantities.

Final terms.

Mr. Wm. Quenin, Proprietor.

Business Notices

SALE

FOR SALE—Jewelry, clothing, glasses, good tool and buildings. Price reasonable. Address T. C. of Rehmann, Barrington.

FOR SALE—Old silk skirt, No. 12.

Can be seen at Schulz's machine shop Barrington. For particulars call Schulz.

352

FOR SALE—Two cows, two colts, coming four years old; two thousand white tail deer skins, 2000 black tail deer, 2000 mink, 2000 fox, 2000 marten, Cary station, Ill., telephone 34-2-1.

342

FOR SALE—Sheep, 300, 302 inches.

Lambs & Company.

FOR SALE—Old farm; good building;

plenty of woodland and pasture.

Address L.R. Review, Barrington, Ill.

352

FOR SALE—Four houses and lots; one on Clark street, one on Ela street, one on Main street, one on W. Meyer,

Barrington, Ill.

352

FOR SALE—Good second-hand auto parts, general auto bodies.

Prices—right.—William Holden,

Barrington, Ill.

352

WANTED—To rent, for cash farm in vicinity of Barrington, 200 acres or more under cultivation, two houses preferably, one barn, one stable, to meet all requirements to run such farm as you desire.

McKinney, Dryer & Blundell,

Elk Grove, Ill.

352

MISCELLANEOUS

I am ready to take orders for grasses,

Also have some ripe tomatoes, by order, from Mr. W. Abbott, telephone Barrington 352-1.

Everybody Is Going

TO THE

Lake County Fair

LIBERTYVILLE, ILL.

September 3-4-5-6, '19

Increased Premiums in all Departments

$1,300 Paid in Specials

$500,000 Live Stock Exhibit

Excellent Racing Program Daily

Aeroplane Flights Daily by Larry Brown

Clean, Legitimate Concessions & Privileges

Merry-go-Round!

Baseball!

Dancing for All!

Township Automobile Parade

Boys and Girls Stock Judging Contest

Daily Program Arranged to Suit all the People

Write for Premium List if Interested

ADMISSIONS:

Season Tickets, $1.00; Single Tickets, 50c

Auto or Carriage Admission 50 Cents

Follow the Crowd! Boost a Modern Fair!

FRED GRABBE, Pres.

W. E. WATKINS, Sec'y

Wm. H. Malone

Republican Candidate for Delegate

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

He fought for you against the Corporate Interests at Springfield.

He will fight for a tax reform in the Constitutional convention.

He will fight for a Square Deal for the farmers and tax payers.

He is not afraid to tell the truth and does it.

Elected by the people, he served the people—not the tax-dodging corporations.

Last Name on the Ballot

VOTE FOR HIM

Primaries Wednesday, September 10, 1919