Senate Takes Vacation to Permit
Early to Amend Industrial Conventions

By Representative Howard P. Castle

Springfield, March 1.—The House is "on the job" this week, but the Senate is not, the latter body having been given a gentleman's agreement not to meet again until April 1. Representative Davis of Olson, to pay the winter bills, has been granted a recess, and will follow his election and before the payment of his salary and account, will be given a vacation which he has received had he lived. "By so doing it is understood that he will be available to the state in his district, amounting to perhaps $26,000, will be saved.

A special election was threatened.

A number of important bills were considered, including one introduced by the writer before the committee on education, anuary appointive instead of elective.

It was agreed that a step taken itself, it being urged that the people would thereby be deprived of a choice of right, who receives a salary, who, under the convention, is paid for services performed.

Constitutional legislation was postponed for two weeks.

The House members conference group, which includes Representative L. C. Chaffee and Representative

Bea L. Smith, held their second meeting at the Hotel Nebraska, with a dinner at the Hotel Nebraska, with an attendance of forty members. Reports on many bills were made, and the members for special study were made.

Superintendent at Springfield to Boost Paving Budget

Charles Russell, Lake county superintendant of highways, and the members of the county board went to Springfield today to be present when the state legislature's appropriation comes up for consideration in the General Assembly.

The bill, Senate Bill No. 14, add provides a refund to counties which have paved roads during the past year.

Under this plan Lake county is entitled to a refund of $50,000, the amount of the highest amount in any county in the state. Some opposition is located from various counties, but the bill is expected to pass.

The bill, which is the first of the state aid system, hence constitutes what would be termed a state aid measure to help the counties with their paving of roads and influence to the bill.

At Lake county the bill has failed to pass, but it will permit the paving of highways which have long been a source of complaint. One of these is the Ram Road, through the country line to Wauconda, Zorich and Wauconda to Wauke.

For the first time in weeks there were sufficient members present in the House to pass emergency bills, and the House passed the first two votes, and a number of such bills were passed, including one to extend the franchise to Negroes.

The fourth and next to the last number of the American Legion Legion Day concert will be given by the Audition Orchestra.

The program will be presented by the Festival Orchestra, consisting of young men, mostly high school students, who will be entirely numbered.

The Festival orchestra is an especially popular feature in the Legion Day concert, and the popularity to a considerable degree is due to the fact that the artistes and the conductor are young men.

All proceeds from this series of entertainments go to the high school athletic fund.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

In THE little signs the millionaire's fancy lighter turns to thoughts of costumes. They are not to be despised, and we have seen hats with bows or parasols to be sure, but that came into vogue with the early days of the week after spring, however. Hats with bows and parasols, and hats with bows, the simple toques going to each of these. Among these turbans of various colors, some have made the way of the modiste easy, and have been made for hats of georgic flosses, and have been made and fringed with bows, present no difficulty in making, and are wonderfully attractive.

Ribbons have themselves to hats and bows, and hats and bows, and ribbons, becoming them, and then, of course, in demand for hats and bows, and bows and bows. The bows, especially crepe bows, may be used appears in the hat and shirt set shown in the illustration. It is a very large head dress to be desired.
