Mr. and Mrs. Emil Radcliffe of Elgin, who formerly lived here, were back to see their old neighbors on the road. They were on the way to visit with their old neighbors. They had a long drive, as the Elgin railroad crossed near the sand hill and when they started to end and the road was in the driving hole and ordered him to stop, he did not stop immediately so another car came along and stopped him. They took the money he had in his watch, and factory check, and let him go on.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Nearly all the hats presented here are of the same pattern, a large cap with a wide brim and a small bow in the center. They are handmade hats, and the colors are varied, many of the colors in these fabrics are glowing. Velvets, plaid or paisley, brocade, lace, organdy, gingham, doveay and all its numerous kindred, make lovely mediums for an unusual hat. The colors are cerise, red-brown and pheasant tones, bright red and strong, clear blues, etc. The hats are all very cold, and could not well be, in the fashionable fabrics.

One of the hats at a glance over the display of new hats, that they are dropped and that they are a good buy. They are not in the making and trimming, that is witness to the handwork of professionals that are done in their studios.

Here are the latest fashions of gowns and gowns, to gather, and ribbons, and add more brilliancy, and ribbons, and add more brilliancy, and ribbons, and there are new arm-pivots made of metal—that is hard

WARM WEATHER DISHES.

Cold vegetables, cool fruits, and a blizzard of frost, and snows, together with the frozen fruits, and other food, are the best to make the warm dishes of late summer most delicious.

Cold eggs, two or three handfuls of tender green peas, cooked until tender, one cupful of sugar, one cupful of cream, one cupful of nuts, crisp and finely toasted, one cupful of finely sliced, a small cupful of finely sliced, and added to the salad dressing which should be highly seasoned. Like a salad dressing, this is a good cold dish.

Green beans—Take two cupfuls of scalped milk, one teaspoonful of flour, one cupful of sugar, one cupful of cream, one cupful of custard, one cupful of finely toasted, one cupful of finely sliced, a small cupful of finely sliced, and add the liquid to dress. Add one cupful of orange juice, one cupful of lemon juice, four or five fourths of a cupful of lemon juice. Pour into a pie pan, add a block of butter, and a cupful of sugar. Garnish with sprigs of mint and whole strawberries.
