A Morning's Meditation

What may I ask of the glad New Year,
Whose golden dawning paints the eastern sky?
What may I hope to accomplish here,
As days and seasons move so swiftly by?
What shall I promise myself to do
Before this golden year is through?
Help me to live in a kindly way,
To cheer the coming of my friends,
Let me know laughter and wholesome joy,
For what I want is all that I can give.
Give me the courage and faith to see
That God will bless each day for me.
