

Clubs - Society - Personals

W. R. C. Holds Installation Services

General Thomas W. Seeman... installation of officers Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 11, at the Masonic temple...

Rebekah Installation Monday Night

The installation of Autumn Leaf Rebekah lodge will be held Monday night in the I. O. O. F. hall for members only...

Alfred Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Bennett and family and Miss Marjorie Bennett of Barrington were guests at a birthday party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horn of Crystal Lake Sunday.

Entertainers at Birthday Dinner

Mrs. T. C. Hooper, 292 S. Cook street, will host a birthday dinner Sunday evening in house of Mr. Hooper.

Entertainers Bridge Club

Mrs. Emma Wathum, 254 W. Lincoln street, entertained at a three tables bridge party Sunday. The guests were all out of town friends.

Rho Sigma Tau Initiates Members

The Rho Sigma Tau society held its formal initiation at the Pittmore Country club Wednesday evening. A social hour completed the program of the evening.

Entertainers Birthday Club

Mrs. Orville Melrose, 230 W. Lake street, was hostess at a birthday luncheon Wednesday in honor of Mrs. F. Peterson of Lake Zurich. A social afternoon of games and singing followed the luncheon.

Monday Club Luncheon

The ladies of the Monday afternoon Pineville club, entertained their husbands at the home of Mrs. Arnold H. Ness, 142 W. Station street, Thursday evening, Jan. 12. Prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Schreiber, Mrs. George Kuhlman, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kuebler.

Mothers Class Meets at Blankie Home

The mothers class of the Salem church met at the Blankie home at the home of Mrs. John Blake, 523 Summit street. The afternoon's program was given by Mrs. George Kuhlman, Harold and Arlene Wising, Mary Ann and Helen Blake, and Paul and Marion Schreiber.

Entertainers at Bridge

Miss Madeline Drauden, 118 W. Lake street, entertained at bridge Thursday afternoon. The party was attended by Miss Mary Margaret Cook, Miss Florence Davis and Miss Drea Dene. The party was completed with refreshments served by Mrs. William Drauden.

Celebrates Tenth Birthday

Richard Meiner, 229 W. Lake street, celebrated his tenth birthday Tuesday by entertaining a group of friends at a party in his home. The following were guests: James South, Hugh Waterman, Willard Meiner, Harry Burns, Wayne Rieck, Bruce Miller, and Irene Langner.

Entertainers in Honor

Mrs. N. B. Neudorfer of Cuba township entertained a group of young people at a six o'clock dinner and costume party Saturday afternoon at the home of her son, Norman, who was celebrating his birthday. A social evening of games followed the dinner.

Barrington Woman's Club

The January meeting of the Barrington Woman's Club will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Announcement was made of the benefit bridge at the Edgewater beach hotel on February 24 to be sponsored by the board of directors of the nursery. Tickets for this will be $1.00.

Also it was reported that a call had come from the United Charities asking for help in making garments.

Mrs. Russell Manthorpe delegate to the winter meeting of the Women's club of the seventh district reported upon the inspiring day at this meeting.

Mrs. Mabelle Higgins, a member of the "Fairy Impromptu," and "The Meaning of Culture."

Dr. Horace J. Bridges, eminent English scholar and lecturer, spoke on "The Meaning of Culture."

Mrs. Bridges referred to the treatises on this same subject written by Matthew Arnold in 1840, and by Jobb and attended the Wisconsin-Northwestern basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horn and children John Jr. and Jane, 502 Grove avenue, spent Sunday with relatives in Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans of Barrington.

Miss Lucille Claude of Cuba township and Miss Marjorie Williams of Barrington were guests Sunday at Erastus.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stephenson of Highland Park were guests Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Williamson, 122 Waverly road.

Miss Marjorie Bennett and Miss Edna Anderson of Barrington visited the Libertyville schools Thursday.

Mrs. G. A. Lindquist of Irving Park spent Monday at the Charles T. Ross home, 516 S. Cook street.

William Meister and Charles Williams of Chicago spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Eelman of La Grange were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McClure, 530 Grove avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wallace and son Richard, 223 W. Russell street, spent Friday at Joliet.

Donald Schroeder, 522 S. Cook street, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Willard Gliese.

Mr. and Mrs. George Landers and family, 312 E. Hollis avenue, spent Sunday with relatives at Crystal Lake.

Misses Maude Strauss and Dorothy Pfeiffer of Hinckley were dinner guests Sunday of the former.

Miss Esther Strauss at 109 Fairfield street. In the afternoon they attended the Shore Ski meet.

John Steedly and son Kenneth, 114 Northwood highway, returned from Moline Tuesday night. They had attended the funeral of Mrs. Steedly's father on Sunday. Mrs. Steedly is remaining in Moline for an in-laws' home because of the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Berta Meiners is ill at her home, 191 Dundee avenue.

Mrs. R. M. Eljos, 292 W. Main street is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mrs. Martin Gordon, 211 W. Station street, is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Calkins, Arthur Calkins, and James Falkenberg of Barrington called on Mrs. Arthur Calkins at the Frances Willard hospital in Chicago Sunday, and brought the report that Mrs. Calkins is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wiring and other relatives in Barrington attended the funeral of Mrs. George Waterhouse at the St. James Episcopal church of Chicago Sunday. The burial took place in the Dundee cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walden of Edison Park and Miss Wanda Anderson of Salt Lake City, Utah, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walz, 216 Franklin street, Sunday.

L. T. Smiley and his niece, Miss Nora Meyer, 629 Grove avenue, saw Mrs. Mary Egan at the Exchange theater Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Hawley and Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Hawley of Barrington motored to Campbellsburg, Mo., for the home of Mrs. Hawley who is a student at the university.

Mrs. H. K. Brockway of Maudsloni spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brockway, 625 S. Hough street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Shole of Oak Park were the guests of Miss Egan called on Miss Eunice Shole, 415 S. Hough street, Sunday and were guests at tea at the Plazge home.

Barrington Woman's Club

The January meeting of the Barrington Woman's Club will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Announcement was made of the benefit bridge at the Edgewater beach hotel on February 24 to be sponsored by the board of directors of the nursery. Tickets for this will be $1.00.

Also it was reported that a call had come from the United Charities asking for help in making garments.

Mrs. Russell Manthorpe delegate to the winter meeting of the Women's club of the seventh district reported upon the inspiring day at this meeting.

Mrs. Mabelle Higgins, a member of the "Fairy Impromptu," and "The Meaning of Culture."

Dr. Horace J. Bridges, eminent English scholar and lecturer, spoke on "The Meaning of Culture."

Mrs. Bridges referred to the treatises on this same subject written by Matthew Arnold in 1840, and by Jobb and attended the Wisconsin-Northwestern basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horn and children John Jr. and Jane, 502 Grove avenue, spent Sunday with relatives in Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans of Barrington.

Miss Lucille Claude of Cuba township and Miss Marjorie Williams of Barrington were guests Sunday at Erastus.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stephenson of Highland Park were guests Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Williamson, 122 Waverly road.

Miss Marjorie Bennett and Miss Edna Anderson of Barrington visited the Libertyville schools Thursday.

Mrs. G. A. Lindquist of Irving Park spent Monday at the Charles T. Ross home, 516 S. Cook street.

William Meister and Charles Williams of Chicago spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Eelman of La Grange were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McClure, 530 Grove avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wallace and son Richard, 223 W. Russell street, spent Friday at Joliet.

Donald Schroeder, 522 S. Cook street, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Willard Gliese.

Mr. and Mrs. George Landers and family, 312 E. Hollis avenue, spent Sunday with relatives at Crystal Lake.

Misses Maude Strauss and Dorothy Pfeiffer of Hinckley were dinner guests Sunday of the former.

Miss Esther Strauss at 109 Fairfield street. In the afternoon they attended the Shore Ski meet.

John Steedly and son Kenneth, 114 Northwood highway, returned from Moline Tuesday night. They had attended the funeral of Mrs. Steedly's father on Sunday. Mrs. Steedly is remaining in Moline for an in-laws' home because of the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Berta Meiners is ill at her home, 191 Dundee avenue.

Mrs. R. M. Eljos, 292 W. Main street is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mrs. Martin Gordon, 211 W. Station street, is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Calkins, Arthur Calkins, and James Falkenberg of Barrington called on Mrs. Arthur Calkins at the Frances Willard hospital in Chicago Sunday, and brought the report that Mrs. Calkins is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wiring and other relatives in Barrington attended the funeral of Mrs. George Waterhouse at the St. James Episcopal church of Chicago Sunday. The burial took place in the Dundee cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walden of Edison Park and Miss Wanda Anderson of Salt Lake City, Utah, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walz, 216 Franklin street, Sunday.

L. T. Smiley and his niece, Miss Nora Meyer, 629 Grove avenue, saw Mrs. Mary Egan at the Exchange theater Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Hawley and Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Hawley of Barrington motored to Campbellsburg, Mo., for the home of Mrs. Hawley who is a student at the university.

Mrs. H. K. Brockway of Maudsloni spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brockway, 625 S. Hough street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Shole of Oak Park were the guests of Miss Egan called on Miss Eunice Shole, 415 S. Hough street, Sunday and were guests at tea at the Plazge home.

Barrington Woman's Club

The January meeting of the Barrington Woman's Club will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Announcement was made of the benefit bridge at the Edgewater beach hotel on February 24 to be sponsored by the board of directors of the nursery. Tickets for this will be $1.00.

Also it was reported that a call had come from the United Charities asking for help in making garments.

Mrs. Russell Manthorpe delegate to the winter meeting of the Women's club of the seventh district reported upon the inspiring day at this meeting.

Mrs. Mabelle Higgins, a member of the "Fairy Impromptu," and "The Meaning of Culture."

Dr. Horace J. Bridges, eminent English scholar and lecturer, spoke on "The Meaning of Culture."

Mrs. Bridges referred to the treatises on this same subject written by Matthew Arnold in 1840, and by Jobb and attended the Wisconsin-Northwestern basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horn and children John Jr. and Jane, 502 Grove avenue, spent Sunday with relatives in Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans of Barrington.

Miss Lucille Claude of Cuba township and Miss Marjorie Williams of Barrington were guests Sunday at Erastus.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stephenson of Highland Park were guests Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Williamson, 122 Waverly road.

Miss Marjorie Bennett and Miss Edna Anderson of Barrington visited the Libertyville schools Thursday.

Mrs. G. A. Lindquist of Irving Park spent Monday at the Charles T. Ross home, 516 S. Cook street.

William Meister and Charles Williams of Chicago spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Eelman of La Grange were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McClure, 530 Grove avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wallace and son Richard, 223 W. Russell street, spent Friday at Joliet.

Donald Schroeder, 522 S. Cook street, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Willard Gliese.

Mr. and Mrs. George Landers and family, 312 E. Hollis avenue, spent Sunday with relatives at Crystal Lake.

Misses Maude Strauss and Dorothy Pfeiffer of Hinckley were dinner guests Sunday of the former.

Miss Esther Strauss at 109 Fairfield street. In the afternoon they attended the Shore Ski meet.

John Steedly and son Kenneth, 114 Northwood highway, returned from Moline Tuesday night. They had attended the funeral of Mrs. Steedly's father on Sunday. Mrs. Steedly is remaining in Moline for an in-laws' home because of the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Berta Meiners is ill at her home, 191 Dundee avenue.

Mrs. R. M. Eljos, 292 W. Main street is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mrs. Martin Gordon, 211 W. Station street, is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Calkins, Arthur Calkins, and James Falkenberg of Barrington called on Mrs. Arthur Calkins at the Frances Willard hospital in Chicago Sunday, and brought the report that Mrs. Calkins is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wiring and other relatives in Barrington attended the funeral of Mrs. George Waterhouse at the St. James Episcopal church of Chicago Sunday. The burial took place in the Dundee cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walden of Edison Park and Miss Wanda Anderson of Salt Lake City, Utah, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walz, 216 Franklin street, Sunday.

L. T. Smiley and his niece, Miss Nora Meyer, 629 Grove avenue, saw Mrs. Mary Egan at the Exchange theater Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Hawley and Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Hawley of Barrington motored to Campbellsburg, Mo., for the home of Mrs. Hawley who is a student at the university.

Mrs. H. K. Brockway of Maudsloni spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brockway, 625 S. Hough street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Shole of Oak Park were the guests of Miss Egan called on Miss Eunice Shole, 415 S. Hough street, Sunday and were guests at tea at the Plazge home.

Barrington Woman's Club

The January meeting of the Barrington Woman's Club will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Announcement was made of the benefit bridge at the Edgewater beach hotel on February 24 to be sponsored by the board of directors of the nursery. Tickets for this will be $1.00.

Also it was reported that a call had come from the United Charities asking for help in making garments.

Mrs. Russell Manthorpe delegate to the winter meeting of the Women's club of the seventh district reported upon the inspiring day at this meeting.

Mrs. Mabelle Higgins, a member of the "Fairy Impromptu," and "The Meaning of Culture."

Dr. Horace J. Bridges, eminent English scholar and lecturer, spoke on "The Meaning of Culture."

Mrs. Bridges referred to the treatises on this same subject written by Matthew Arnold in 1840, and by Jobb and attended the Wisconsin-Northwestern basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horn and children John Jr. and Jane, 502 Grove avenue, spent Sunday with relatives in Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans of Barrington.

Miss Lucille Claude of Cuba township and Miss Marjorie Williams of Barrington were guests Sunday at Erastus.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stephenson of Highland Park were guests Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Williamson, 122 Waverly road.

Miss Marjorie Bennett and Miss Edna Anderson of Barrington visited the Libertyville schools Thursday.

Mrs. G. A. Lindquist of Irving Park spent Monday at the Charles T. Ross home, 516 S. Cook street.

William Meister and Charles Williams of Chicago spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Eelman of La Grange were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McClure, 530 Grove avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wallace and son Richard, 223 W. Russell street, spent Friday at Joliet.

Donald Schroeder, 522 S. Cook street, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Willard Gliese.

Mr. and Mrs. George Landers and family, 312 E. Hollis avenue, spent Sunday with relatives at Crystal Lake.

Misses Maude Strauss and Dorothy Pfeiffer of Hinckley were dinner guests Sunday of the former.

Miss Esther Strauss at 109 Fairfield street. In the afternoon they attended the Shore Ski meet.

John Steedly and son Kenneth, 114 Northwood highway, returned from Moline Tuesday night. They had attended the funeral of Mrs. Steedly's father on Sunday. Mrs. Steedly is remaining in Moline for an in-laws' home because of the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Berta Meiners is ill at her home, 191 Dundee avenue.

Mrs. R. M. Eljos, 292 W. Main street is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mrs. Martin Gordon, 211 W. Station street, is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Calkins, Arthur Calkins, and James Falkenberg of Barrington called on Mrs. Arthur Calkins at the Frances Willard hospital in Chicago Sunday, and brought the report that Mrs. Calkins is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wiring and other relatives in Barrington attended the funeral of Mrs. George Waterhouse at the St. James Episcopal church of Chicago Sunday. The burial took place in the Dundee cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walden of Edison Park and Miss Wanda Anderson of Salt Lake City, Utah, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walz, 216 Franklin street, Sunday.

L. T. Smiley and his niece, Miss Nora Meyer, 629 Grove avenue, saw Mrs. Mary Egan at the Exchange theater Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Hawley and Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Hawley of Barrington motored to Campbellsburg, Mo., for the home of Mrs. Hawley who is a student at the university.

Mrs. H. K. Brockway of Maudsloni spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brockway, 625 S. Hough street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Shole of Oak Park were the guests of Miss Egan called on Miss Eunice Shole, 415 S. Hough street, Sunday and were guests at tea at the Plazge home.

Barrington Woman's Club

The January meeting of the Barrington Woman's Club will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Announcement was made of the benefit bridge at the Edgewater beach hotel on February 24 to be sponsored by the board of directors of the nursery. Tickets for this will be $1.00.

Also it was reported that a call had come from the United Charities asking for help in making garments.

Mrs. Russell Manthorpe delegate to the winter meeting of the Women's club of the seventh district reported upon the inspiring day at this meeting.

Mrs. Mabelle Higgins, a member of the "Fairy Impromptu," and "The Meaning of Culture."

Dr. Horace J. Bridges, eminent English scholar and lecturer, spoke on "The Meaning of Culture."

Mrs. Bridges referred to the treatises on this same subject written by Matthew Arnold in 1840, and by Jobb and attended the Wisconsin-Northwestern basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horn and children John Jr. and Jane, 502 Grove avenue, spent Sunday with relatives in Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans of Barrington.

Miss Lucille Claude of Cuba township and Miss Marjorie Williams of Barrington were guests Sunday at Erastus.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stephenson of Highland Park were guests Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Williamson, 122 Waverly road.

Miss Marjorie Bennett and Miss Edna Anderson of Barrington visited the Libertyville schools Thursday.

Mrs. G. A. Lindquist of Irving Park spent Monday at the Charles T. Ross home, 516 S. Cook street.

William Meister and Charles Williams of Chicago spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Eelman of La Grange were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McClure, 530 Grove avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wallace and son Richard, 223 W. Russell street, spent Friday at Joliet.

Donald Schroeder, 522 S. Cook street, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Willard Gliese.

Mr. and Mrs. George Landers and family, 312 E. Hollis avenue, spent Sunday with relatives at Crystal Lake.

Misses Maude Strauss and Dorothy Pfeiffer of Hinckley were dinner guests Sunday of the former.

Miss Esther Strauss at 109 Fairfield street. In the afternoon they attended the Shore Ski meet.

John Steedly and son Kenneth, 114 Northwood highway, returned from Moline Tuesday night. They had attended the funeral of Mrs. Steedly's father on Sunday. Mrs. Steedly is remaining in Moline for an in-laws' home because of the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Berta Meiners is ill at her home, 191 Dundee avenue.

Mrs. R. M. Eljos, 292 W. Main street is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mrs. Martin Gordon, 211 W. Station street, is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Calkins, Arthur Calkins, and James Falkenberg of Barrington called on Mrs. Arthur Calkins at the Frances Willard hospital in Chicago Sunday, and brought the report that Mrs. Calkins is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wiring and other relatives in Barrington attended the funeral of Mrs. George Waterhouse at the St. James Episcopal church of Chicago Sunday. The burial took place in the Dundee cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Walden of Edison Park and Miss Wanda Anderson of Salt Lake City, Utah, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walz, 216 Franklin street, Sunday.

L. T. Smiley and his niece, Miss Nora Meyer, 629 Grove avenue, saw Mrs. Mary Egan at the Exchange theater Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Hawley and Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Hawley of Barrington motored to Campbellsburg, Mo., for the home of Mrs. Hawley who is a student at the university.

Mrs. H. K. Brockway of Maudsloni spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brockway, 625 S. Hough street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Shole of Oak Park were the guests of Miss Egan called on Miss Eunice Shole, 415 S. Hough street, Sunday and were guests at tea at the Plazge home.

Barrington Woman's Club

The January meeting of the Barrington Woman's Club will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Announcement was made of the benefit bridge at the Edgewater beach hotel on February 24 to be sponsored by the board of directors of the nursery. Tickets for this will be $1.00.