Public officer has carried out his obligations more humanely or efficiently? When responsibility for care of the poor was thrown onto the townships over a year ago, I organized a campaign to raise funds for this purpose.

When I was elected supervisor the town fund was over $1500 in debt. I paid off this debt, put the township on a cash basis, and reduced the tax rate in three years' time.

I have brought over $1000 in county business to the merchants of Barrington the past year—business that formerly went exclusively to the county seat.

I fought for the retention of a county veterinarian, and Lake county has recently been declared an accredited county—the only accredited county in northern Illinois.

I was successful in giving Barrington a state motorcycle police officer—the first it had. I succeeded in placing a Barrington man in the sheriff's office. I was one of the organizers of the county radio police system.

I reduced my own salary approximately 30 per cent. I have given every minute of time to my job as supervisor that the public welfare demanded. I have held and now hold important committee assignments.

I am not surprised at being attacked and maligned. That is the only ammunition of the opposition. All that I ask of the fair-minded voters of Cook township is that they come to me with any reports that the public welfare demands. Give me an opportunity to answer my accusers—to submit my evidence. I am on trial; I should be given that right.

FACTS for Fair-Minded Cuba Voters. The Lake county budget was cut $200,000 this fiscal year. The assessed valuation of all real estate in Cuba township and Lake County was reduced 15 per cent.
