Conference Tournament to Be Held Next Week

Games Scheduled for January 24-27 at Three Schools

Preliminaries at Palatine and Wauconda; Finals at Libertyville

Northwest Conference Basketball tournament, a yearly feature in the sport calendar, is scheduled for next week, January 24, 25, 26, 27. An innovation is being tried this year as the tournament is split into three parts instead of all the games at Libertyville, as has been done in the past few years. The preliminaries for the five conference teams will be held at Wauconda the southern five at Palatine. The games will be played on Thursday, and Friday, with the winner and loser playing between the two Saturday night. A curtain raiser for that night will be between lightweight teams beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The Broncbos face Libertyville in the second Wednesday, January 24 at the Wauconda gym. The winner of this game they will play at Wauconda Thursday night and the two victors will meet the winner of the Antioch-Warren tussle on Saturday night for the right to battle the winner at Libertyville.

Libertyville Will Give B.H.S. Team Real Battle Friday

The Libertyville Wildcats invade the stronghold Friday night which is up to be a special game for fans. As the Broncbos need to stay in first place in the standing and the Wildcats have to stay in the running for a real bouout to goodness will develop between the two. A defeat by Arlington last week pounded Libertyville into second place in the league standing after the four games in a row. The only season defeat by the high school heavyweights. Martin of Libertyville will be his strongest lineup against the Bronchos including Rudloff, Duddles, Steichen who are the Wildcats' scoring threats. The record in conference competition is as follows: Palatine 32 to 26; Barrington 7 to 19; Wauconda 36 to 17; Antioch 22 to 16; Lost to 22 to 16; and Arlington.

Libertyville will be at full strength for the Wildcat battle as the ailing center, is about to recover from his injury and will probably see part of the game. The Libertyville Ponies have won their last two starts by impressive scores in facing the Lake lightweights. The Ponies are tied for the lead in the conference with five wins and one defeat. Libertyville won by a 25 to 20 score earlier game with the Bronchos.

Looking You in the Eye

The threadbare saying that a liar cannot look you in the face is far from accurate; a practiced liar makes a habit of so doing, whereas a timid teller of the truth may be shy and evasive in his looks.

Barrington and Palatine Retain Lead in League

Bronchos Defeat Warren Cagers 23 to 22 in Friday Night's Game

The high-stepping Barrington Bronchos turned in their fifth conference win of the season by edging out the Warren Blue Devils 23 to 22 at Genee Friday night and in doing this held on to their first place position in the Northwest conference standing with a record of only one loss in six games. At the present time Palatine's lanky cagers are tied with the local team for the lead in the heavyweight division, running up the same number of wins and losses. The largest crowd of Barrington rooters to follow the local high school teams out of town this year was present to see the Bronchos beat the Blue Devils and the Barrington Ponies nose out the Warren lights 21 to 19 in three overtime periods. A breath-taking finish by the maroon and white heavies, who were trailing by six points late in the final quarter, reached a climax when Conn's short shot slipped through the net for the winning margin with less than a half a minute left to play.

Warren Defense Strong

Warren's tight zone defense left the Bronks few chances for spot shots and most of the local baskets were made on drives under the basket. The Bronchos trailed 3 to 5 at the first quarter but managed to knot the score at 9 all at the half only to drop back 14 to 17 at the three quarter mark as Bowling, dead-eye Blue Devil forward, hit three long baskets in a row. The local five crept up in the final period and Warren was in front 22 to 21 in the closing minute when Mollenkamp, Bronk guard, tried a desperate long heave which Conn followed up to drop in the winning points. It was anybody's game but Coach Clark's players were the best finishers, counting 9 points to Warren 5 in the final quarter.

Conn with 5 baskets and a free throw and Etters with 6 points led the Bronks in scoring while Workman turned in a good game at guard. Bowling was the chief offensive threat of the Blue Devils pacing his team with 4 field goals and 3 free tosses.

Ponies Outlast Foes

The Barrington Ponies had to go three overtime periods before beating the Warren lightweights 21 to 19. The score was tied at 18 all when the regulation game ended and 19 all at the end of the first overtime. No points were made in the second overtime and in the third extra period Wallace slipped in a short shot to win the game for the tired Ponies. The game was extremely rough, each team being guilty of 18 personal fouls and three Warren and two Barrington players were banished from the game by the four foul route. Grabenkort led the lights with 13 points while Wallace's 2 baskets were the only other local scores from the field.

Baptists Defeat Salems to Throw League Into Tie

Methodists Win From St. Anne to Share Lead in Church Loop

The Baptist cagers threw the church league race wide open by handing Salem its first defeat of the season last Monday night, 25 to 18. The Baptists counted more than half of their points in a third quarter scoring spree in ringing up the upset. This defeat drops Salem into a first place tie with the Methodists who trounced St. Anne 42 to 18 in the other game of the evening.

Salem was visibly weakened by the absence of four players, Eddie Gieske, Bill Grabenkort, Bill Landwer, and Wimpy Miller who are on a trip to Florida, yet they managed to hold a 12 to 8 lead at the half. The third quarter rally by the Baptists netted them 13 points and a 21 to 14 margin at the end of the period which they protected until the end of the game. Salem threw possible points away by failing to count a single free throw in nine chances. Harder of Salem and Thorp of the Baptists led the scoring with 8 and 7 points respectively.

Methodists Show Power

In the nightcap the Methodists had too much man power for St. Anne and romped off with an easy victory. The M.E.'s had their basket eye work-
