BARRINGTON LEAGUE January 30

Miller Brothers gained a game on the leading Polkmen Drugs by winning two out of three from the Drugs Tuesday night. Although the Jefferson Ice squad bowled the high series of the night, 2001, they could take only one game from the last place Lipovsky Clubbers.

Local Pin Men Win Close Match From Mundelein Bowlers

A team of local bowlers of the Barrington Recreation Club defeated a Mundelein quintet by 62 pins, 2725 to 2073, in a match at the local alley last Sunday afternoon. Nagatta was high man for both teams.

Salem Cage Men Defeat M.E. Team 25 to 20 Monday

League Leaders at Full Team Strength for First Time in Two Weeks

Salem at full strength proved too strong for the Methodists last Monday night and pounded out a 25 to 20 win over the M.E.'s to hold on to first place in the church league race. The Salem quintet was intact for the first time in three weeks as Gieske, R. Grabenkov, Landwehr and Miller, who had been vacationing in Florida, returned in time for the game.

Organisms Live on Fish

Many of the diseases affecting fish are caused by small, usually microscopic, organisms which are dependent to a varying degree upon the fish for their existence. Many of these parasites live on the body surface or the gills, notes a report of the United States bureau of fisheries.
