Cricket Sings by Telephone

That a cricket possesses hearing apparatus in its forelegs, and that a female cricket will hop toward a male cricket when the latter produces his love song by rubbing his wing castings together has been known for some time.

Fox River Grove

Eleven friends gathered at the home of Carl Olmstead Saturday evening. The next unit meeting will be held May 9 and a county meeting will be held at Cary May 11. The county assessor was busy here this week making assessments for next year's taxes. ## Bankruptcy

The laws of bankruptcy are far less severe on debtors than they used to be. At one time in Scotland bankrupts were compelled to wear a distinctive costume, and in England, until 1801, they were treated almost as criminals. So degraded was bankruptcy in general esteem that newspapers and magazines with pretensions to refinement hesitated to print the word in full and when they did to use it, they did so under the heading, "D-k-ers."

Hyena is Cowardly

The hyena is a cowardly animal which preys, as a rule, on carrion, or on animals weakened by wounds or disease. A single hyena will not attack a man unless desperate from hunger or protecting its young.

Hydrogen Puts Light in Stars

About one-third of a star is composed of hydrogen, but it is not hydrogen alone that produces the light. The breaking of the hydrogen atoms into their constituent parts, the protons and electrons, is the source of the light. The process is called ionization. The light produced is called H-alpha light. The study of H-alpha light has led to the discovery of the H-alpha forest, a series of absorption lines in the spectra of stars.

WARM WEATHER WARNING CHANGE THAT WINTER-WORN OIL!

This year, don't wait too long to change Winter oil! That's what takes the pep out of a car. Makes it sluggish. The fact is, Winter-worn oil can't lubricate your engine because it's thin and dirty! Raw gas, sucked in when you use your choke, has diluted it. That's why we say, "Change to Summer Mobiloil!" Maybe you didn't realize it, but modern high-speed engines are twice as dependent on fine oil as motors of a few years ago.

Mobiloil is the world's largest-selling motor oil because it keeps your engine running better with Mobiloil in the crankcase. It stands up under extreme heat. It stays tough when spread in a thinner film. So drain off that Winter-worn oil today. Stop where you see the Mobiloil sign. Get the right grade of Summer Mobiloil for your make of car, plainly printed on the chart your dealer uses. Vacuum Oil Company, Inc.—a Socony-Vacuum company.

Calling all Cars!
While you're changing Winter oil, do a complete check. It takes only a few minutes wherever you see the Mobiloil sign. Your car will run better if the chassis is lubricated with Summer Mobilgrease and if you have Mobiloil "C" in the transmission and differential. Stop wherever you see the Mobiloil sign and get skilled, fast service.
