To Give Review at

Mrs. Heilmann's Home
Mrs. Robert Work will review "Peter Abelard" by Helen Waddell at a meeting of book lovers to be held at the home of Mrs. Alex Reichmann at 2 p. m. Friday, July 27. The same study group met at the home of Mrs. William Mort Tuesday to hear a book review by Mrs. R. R. Hammond (the original date, Friday, having been changed because of the DeLong funeral services). "Peter Abelard" which has been called the best novel published in England during the past year, is a retelling of the immortal love story of Abelard and Heloise. Parts of the 12th century is the background of this true tale of the scholar and philosopher and the young girl from a country convent, the latter which does not grow old though centuries have passed.

Catlow Will Form Theatre Club; Plan Valuable Prizes

Managers Announce Novel Attendance Campaign; 19 Awards

A unique campaign to promote theatrical attendance was announced today by the managers of the Catlow theatre.

A contest in which credits will be featured. Persons attending the theatre will be given credits and other credits will be issued for the sale of books of theatre admission tickets on the part of patrons.

On August 10, prizes will be awarded to the persons having the most credits. The prizes include a new Pontiac coupe, fully equipped, or $500 in cash. The second prize will be a trip to Hollywood or $250 in cash. The third prize, $100 in cash. The fourth prize, $50 in cash. The fifth prize, $25 in cash. The sixth prize, $10 in cash. The seventh prize, $5 in cash. The eighth prize, $2 in cash. The ninth prize, $1 in cash. The tenth prize, $0.50 in cash.

Backsteering, extortion and other means a product of our own particular civilization, says Literary Digest. The American Museum of Natural History, New York, has acquired a series of Mexican silver dollars with the period following the Spanish conquest, revealing the extortionate practices of Martin Cortez, son of the conqueror of Mexico, in dealing with the subjugated Indians. The dollars consist mainly of appeals by the Indians against gouging.

Old Quebec
The old French city of Quebec of the seventeenth century and the modern capital of Canada, and modern Quebec, the provincial capital, are two distinct and yet united cities. They form a green center of an ancient and secular history, architecture and religion. Not far from the old city is the village of St. Anne de Beaupre. The shrine of St. Anne has been a point of pilgrimages ever since the first establishment of Canada.

If Earth Stopped Rotating
The Coast and Geodetic survey says that the usual daily and semi-daily rise and fall of the tide would undoubtedly cease if the earth ceased rotating. There would, however, be a semi-monthly and semi-yearly tide of small amplitude due to the monthly revolutions of the moon around the earth and the yearly revolution of the earth around the sun.

Red Man's Defeat in Ohio
In the ranks of little Turtle's Indian forces which were pitted against Gen. Anthony Wayne at the Battle of Fallen Timbers on the banks of the Maumee in Ohio was Tecumseh, the man who was destined to become later the greatest hero of his people. In the ranks of Wayne was the subordinate officer, William H. Harrison, destined to become Ohio's first President. Twenty years later, in the War of 1812, these two subordinate met again on the battlefield, but this time as the leaders in the desperate and primary conflict in Ohio for the supremacy of white man or red man and the white man won.

"Marihuana" is a narcotic plant reputed to cause insanity in persons drinking an infusion of its leaves or smoking them. The word is pronounced mari-huana, long a's and L with the first and third syllables accented.
