200 Attend 20th Anniversary Party of Women's Club

About 200 members and guests attended the twentieth anniversary program of the Barrington Women's club, held at the Methodist church Wednesday evening.

Dr. Edwin Frost, director emeritus of Yerkes Observatory, Williams Bay, Wis., discussed an astronomer's philosophy of life by describing the numerous spheres, stars, and planets to illustrate the infinitesimal part this small world plays in the entire scheme of creation.

Atchison Estlin sang three groups of songs, accompanied at the piano by Donald Titterton. Reports by club members and a resume of the club's history, given by Mrs. Harold Grebe, president, completed the program.

All weekly news reel pictures relative to the gun battle a week ago between two federal men and "Baby Face" Nelson, including recollections of the scene by local high school students before the camera, will be shown.

Court of Honor for Local Scouts to Be Held Dec. 14

Troops 10, 21, 29 Will Take Part; Cubs, Parents to Be Guests

Advancements in rank and merit badge awards will be received by local scouts at a court of honor and public program to be held in the school auditorium at eight o'clock Friday, Dec. 14.

All three local troops will participate in the affair—troop 10, sponsored by Salem church, troop 21, the Lion's club, troop, and troop 29, sponsored by St. Paul church.

Rev. H. L. Eagle will preside at the meeting and C. O. Nims, scout executive of the Northwest Suburban council will present awards. Details concerning a speaker and other features on the program will be announced next week.

A board of review was held Wednesday night and another will be held Friday for those who missed the first one. A board of review is held before each court of honor to review the qualifications of each scout for awards or advancement.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gibson are the proud parents of a seven pound boy, Jon Robert, born Saturday evening.

Clinic for Pre-School Children and Babies Will Be Held Tuesday

A clinic for pre-school children and infants of Barrington will be held at Salem church from 1 to 2 p. m. Tuesday, Dec. 11 under the auspices of the Cook county rural public health division of the bureau of public welfare.

Ordinarily the baby clinic, recently renamed "Barrington Baby Conference," is held the fourth Tuesday of each month. Since that is Christmas Day, it was decided to have the meeting two weeks earlier.

Examination is free and all children of pre-school age or younger are eligible for services of the clinic. The doctor makes a thorough examination and gives advice as to diet or treatment. It is a conference for wet babies, to keep them so, according to those in charge.

No one person posed for the design on the Indian head penny. The Treasury department always states that the designs are idealized conceptions of the artists.

Thomas Beard introduced to this country hides in 1929 and began the manufacture of shoes. This remained a hand process entirely until about 1850, when the first machinery was introduced.

Steamboating on the Mississippi received its first setback in the general disruption of ordinary business caused by the Civil war. And it was just beginning to recover when more sinister opposition appeared in railroad competition, and as the steamboats supplanted the old hand-propelled broadbarns and keel-boats of an earlier time, so the speedier railroads gradually took away all through river traffic and the great Mississippi packets were a thing of the past.

Older than Santa Fe, older indeed, than the memory of man, are the Indian pueblos scattered throughout the cañons and valleys of the Rio Grande. Here the "Old-est Americans" live as they lived for thousands of years, a peace loving, agricultural people, raising their grains and grazing their animals on the rocky hillside.

Australian aborigines, among the most primitive people on earth, wear no clothes even when the temperature drops below freezing. They keep warm by sleeping between two sleep mats.

There was once a steamship line between Colorado and Utah. It navigated the Green and the Colorado rivers for several years.

Do you want your clothes cleaned "individually"? Try Barrington Laundry. They have a new process in dry cleaning.

That men have always preferred blond hair is supported by a number of facts in history. One of the best indications is that in the heyday of wigs it was the blond ones that were at a premium.

Deep red fish are usually red or black in color and carry lights on cheeks, head or tail, or rows of lights along their sides like glowing porpoises.

Sewing Carpet Rags for use of patients in the occupational therapy department at Edward Hines hospital will be the chief work of Legion Auxiliary members at their meeting to be held in the Legion club rooms Monday evening.
