Critics Applaud "Three Men On A Horse" at Harris

The laughing board of Chicago right now is the commonly accepted "Three Men on a Horse"...

According to Charles Collins, writer of a drama critic of the Chicago Tribune...

"At this rate of production 'Three Men on a Horse' is fast becoming a hit with 'flow and four companies'...

Adrian Stevens famed critic of the Chicago American raves about the Chicago company of 'Three Men on a Horse'...

He says further: 'Here is a comedy of a type that has come down through many ages of theatrical history without ever getting out of fashion'...

It is based on an ingenious idea that appeals to men and women alike—a fantastic way of getting money for nothing—Ad-
