Miss Ruth Baumgartner
Bride of Rev. A. T. Kretzmann

St. Johns Lutheran church in Forest Park was the scene of a beautiful wedding Saturday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Ruth Baumgartner of that village became the bride of Rev. A. T. Kretzmann of Barrington. Rev. M. Kretzmann of Kendallville, Ind., father of the groom, officiated using the single ring service. He was assisted in the service by Rev. M. Wagner of St. John church.

At the strains of Lohengrin's march the bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She wore a white satin gown with a long train. Her table veil was held by a hand of seed pearls and her flowers were white roses.

Mr. M. Senkers of LaPorte, Ind., a sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She was dressed in green lace and carried pink roses. Miss Veronette Barkman and Miss Doris Schwagmeyer, the bridesmaids, identical, wore frocks of pink lace. Their flowers were white roses and lavender sweet peas.

Mr. Senkers served the groom as best man and Gerhard Kretzmann and Wilbur Baumgartner were attendants.

During the service a friend of the bride sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Your People Shall be My People." Miss Esther Timmerman at the organ played Mendelssohn's march while the wedding party retired to the church parlors where a reception was given.

The following friends from Barrington attended the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kuehl, Mrs. John Riglieb, Mrs. August Darr, Mrs. Albert Jurek, Mrs. William Nightingale and daughter Eleanor, Gwendolyn Wolff, Lorraine Matloch, Frank Knueck and Miss Helen Henderson Mr. and Mrs. William Duhz of Lake Zurich were guests also. Rev. and Mrs. Kretzmann are at home at 2828 Russell street in Barrington.

St. Matthew's Church to Have Special Program for Mother's Day Sunday

A special Mother's Day service has been arranged by the St. Matthew's church for Sunday. This program is to start at 8 p. m. with the Rev. Walter Baumgartner, pastor of the Good Shepherd church, Chicago, as speaker for the evening. His topic is to be "Mother."

Reverend Baumgartner will bring with him his Junior choir which will sing anthems in conjunction with the day. This choir consists of boys between the ages of 12 and 15 years. The mixed choir of St. Matthew church will also sing at the service.

Committees Plan Local Observance of Memorial Day

W.R.C., Legion and Auxiliary Arrange Meeting, Parade

Preliminary plans for Barrington's observance of Memorial Day were made at a meeting of representatives from the American Legion, Legion Auxiliary and W.R.C. at the home of Mrs. Genevieve Thayer Friday evening.

Committee from each group included the following members: W.R.C., Mrs. C. Weaver, Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. Saxe, Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. J. Lovendahl, Mrs. Harry Braun, Mrs. Arnold Kohmert, Legion, H. Schreiber, William Koester, J. Landegrotz.

Three distinct tributes were planned for the week of May. The first will be a memorial service, arranged by the combined patriotic organizations, at the A. R. Tablet, Barrington cemetery, at 2 p. m. Sunday, May 12.

The second, a community lion church service, arranged the ministerial association, will be held in St. Paul church at 7 p. m. Sunday, May 12 with patriotic groups cooperating.

Schauble Chevrolet Sales Organized a 117 N. Cook Street

An important business change took place this week with the formation of the Schauble Chevrolet Sales at 117 N. Cook street. Fred Schauble as manager of Schauble has been in charge of sales and mechanical department of Schauble Brothers and Collie Dealers for Pontiac and Buick.

The garage building on North Cook street is being redecorated and placed in condition for turnover, which probably will open next week.

The Chevrolet agency was established in Barrington in 1929 by G. Zander in the George Lauch cabbie building on Station street which later left it to open a refrigerator store in Elgin. For the last two years Chris Hawkswill previously associated with Zander, has been in charge of Chevrolet under the name of Gordon Motor Sales. He has not announced his plans for the immediate future.

A change in location, made necessary by the installation of an automobile agency at 117 Cook street, was the removal from that building of the Golden Rule furniture exchange store owned by J. E. Hogland. Mr. Hogland has moved his stock of goods to 219 Railroad street and has changed the name of his business to Hogland Furniture Exchange.
