

Lake Zurich Community Woman's Club

The Lake Zurich Community Woman's club met on Friday, Feb. 15. The program for the day was in charge of the community service department of which Mrs. Meira R. Eide is chairman.

Mrs. J. L. Clements gave an interesting and comprehensive discussion of child nutrition, having her talk on the book by the well known authority on nutrition, Dr. Lydia J. Roberts, head of the department of home economics of the University of Chicago, under whom Mrs. Clements did graduate work.

The investigations which Dr. Roberts carried on under the child welfare bureau at Washington showed that 15 to 20 per cent of the public school children of the United States were undernourished. Mrs. Clements classified the causes for this excess in malnutrition into two general groups, specific, such as faulty diet, faulty hygiene, etc., and the underlying causes which are poverty, ignorance and lack of home content.

Mrs. William Buesching was an honored guest Sunday when her sons and daughters and their families gathered at the home of Matthew's church, Barrington, for a luncheon to celebrate her 80th birthday.

A change in dates has been announced of the Lake county federation meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. J. B. G. on Tuesday, Feb. 26 as previously stated. Members of Lake Zurich Community Woman's club will be joint hostesses.

Mrs. Albert Rudzinski accompanied by Mrs. Anna Berghorn sang several pleasing selections after which tea was served. Mrs. Albert Prehm and Mrs. O. I. Rockenbach acted as hostesses. Mrs. William J. Pretzel, library chairman, reported the purchase of a number of new children's books, as well as a large donation to the library of books for adults.

Announcement was made of the meeting of the Lake county federation to be held at the home of Mrs. J. B. G. on Monday, Feb. 25 at 2 p. m. at the Community church The Wauconda club is being assisted by the Lake Zurich club on this occasion and the program is in charge of the American home department. Club members are invited to attend the meeting of the Fox Lake Women's club on Thursday, March 7 at Fox Lake.

Mrs. W. J. Pretzel was appointed chairman of the reading circle to be held on the evening of March 1 at the Lake Zurich district school to raise funds for the library and the handicraft work room.

On Friday, Feb. 22 the reading circle will meet at the home of Mrs. A. J. Leonard. Mrs. William

School Instruction Held by Eastern Star

A school instruction was held Monday afternoon in the local Masonic temple for the officers of Lonsbury chapter O.E.S. A social hour with cards and bouquets followed the evening meeting.

Fox River Grove

J. Haltsman Dies John Haltsman died at the Mercy hospital, Chicago, Tuesday night, Feb. 12 after having submitted to an operation for appendicitis. He was manager of the Grove Coal and Lumber company and had resided in the Grove for the past 10 years. He was born in Chicago January 10, 1893 and was a prominent citizen. The funeral was one of the largest ever held at Fox River Grove. A large crowd of friends from Chicago were present. Services were held in the Cary Methodist church. Masonic rites interment was held at Cary cemetery. Mr. Haltsman was a member of the Grove Legion post which also took part in services. He is survived by his wife, a son Roy, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Haltsman, two brothers Edward and William, and two sisters Mrs. Joseph Bohman and Mrs. Josephine Stach.

Injured Foot

H. Haackenson had the misfortune of having a stone fall on his right foot while at work with a gang of workers on the highway near Algonquin Wednesday. Some rocks were being loaded on a truck when one rocked off the end of the truck box and fell on his foot. He was under the care of a doctor for several days.

The Charles Kucera and Dr. Loran Hansen have received sympathy from their friends in the death of their mother Mrs. Kucera, Sr. who was 85 years old.

Mrs. Walter Prehm is reported on the gain. She is in St. Joseph's hospital, Elgin.

Campfire Girls

The Wotomachek Talah camp elected its officers for this year Tuesday, Feb. 12 as follows: President, Betty Jane White; Vice president, Mary Clara Yag, Hagen; Secretary, Betty Jane White; Treasurer, Ida Klippenstein. The Wotomachek Talah camp received its charter Monday, Feb. 13. The girls have been anxiously awaiting it.

Campfire's birthday is March 11 and plans are under way for a week of celebration starting off with a St. Patrick day party.

Mrs. Charles Erickson and Mrs. H. Haackenson visited friends in Chicago Wednesday and attended a lodge party in the evening. A praiseworthy shower was tendered Mrs. Mae McGraw by her cousin Mrs. J. Zubeck at Crystal Lake Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. F. Baris are the parents of a son Neil James born in Chicago February 7. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kodysk, Jr. are the parents of a daughter born in Elgin, February 8. The young lady, named Dolores, is already enrolled in the Junior Auxiliary American Legion.

Members of the Junior Auxiliary enjoyed a Valentine party Saturday night at the village hall. Valentine parties were much in evidence last Thursday night. The members of the Fox River Grove Garden club sponsored a party at the village hall and entertained their husbands and friends with music, dancing, and games. A hot jolly supper was served. The Pot Luck neighbors celebrated with a Valentine party at Cernocky hall. Bridge was played. An exchange of valentines furnished much merriment.

Mrs. Ann Wolosk served on the committee sponsoring a card and luncheon party at St. Peter and St. Paul church at Cary last week. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wolosk and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zerbe visited Ed Zerbe's father, Charles Zerbe of Huntley Sunday. Mr. Zerbe has been critically ill with pneumonia for the past four weeks.

Workers were busy the past week rearranging the town hall to accommodate the second fire truck to be used by the fire department. A wall had to be removed as larger space was required.

A drive for funds to carry on boy scout activities for another year will be held next Tuesday. Captains and workers will assemble for a breakfast or luncheon at and be addressed by George C. Drosbach, stock executive of the Blackhawk area. Headquarters are established at Woodstock.

"The Little Minister," starring the brilliant Katharine Hepburn will be seen for the last time at the Catlow theatre Friday night "The Pursuit of Happiness," Broadway's sensational "Band Wag" comedy of the past season starring Frank Lederer, will appear on the screen Saturday. The picture reveals what the history books have been withholding and what, it was thought, might be the best winter evening for our not all ways stars, harsh and forbidding Puritan forefathers! It features Joan Bennett, Charles Huggins and Mary Boland.

Comedy, news, and street diaries for women patrons complete the bill. Eddie Cantor in "Kid Millionaire," the wide-eyed comedian's new screen extravaganza for Samuel Goldwyn, begins a two day run with Ann Sothern, Edna Stuebel, man, Brock and Sully and this season's group of Goldwyn girls adding and abetting the star in his frantic frolics along the Nile in search of buried treasure. Poppy cartoon and news round out the program which begins at 8 p. m.

"Father Brown Detective," starring Walter Connolly will be the bargain night feature of Tuesday. Father Brown books were created by one of the foremost living English fictionists and serialists, G. K. Chesterton. Father Brown comes to life on the screen with Paul Lukas and Gertrude Michael also in leading roles.

"Irish Sweetheart," news and comedy are added attractions. "Bing Crosby and Kitty Carlisle," whom Paramount introduced together in "She Loves Me Not," will open a three day run Wednesday in their second vehicle, "Here is My Heart."

Light and colorful, this is easily the best of Crosby's numerous pictures. Given a chance to do light comedy, the singing star proves himself a highly capable artist at this type of role, and with the aid of Miss Carlisle turns a clever story into an only minutes of excellent entertainment. Outstanding in three comedies are Roland Young, Alison Hingwood, and Hepburn, each as relatives of Miss Carlisle, who plays a Russian princess. Their respective performances add substantially to the success of the picture.

Ralph Ringer and Leo Holdit, authors of "Love in Bloom," wrote the music for this picture, including two songs certain to be hits, "Juke in January" and "With Every Breath I Take." A third catchy song by Robin and Leo Gendler is "Love is Just Around the Corner."

Special comedy "Little Dixie Top," scenic and cartoon complete the program, a local Girls' Athletic association benefit.

ERLANGER THEATRE, Chicago, ILL.—in the Loop—Wed.-Sat. Mat. 2:15 MAKE "ROBERTA" AN EXCUSE TO VISIT CHICAGO

"ROBERTA" Saysings "Robert's" worth going miles to see.—Barrie Collier, Dramatic Critic, Chicago Tribune. Critic's "Robert's" ideal work of co-actable tones.—Arlene Stevens, Dramatic Critic, Chicago American.

ONLY MUSICAL COMEDY TOURING IN THE UNITED STATES

Not only is "Roberta" the only musical comedy touring in the United States, but it is the one and only "Roberta" company in all of North America. It is the original production, which was transported to Chicago in four Pullman cars and three baggage cars, here being eighty people in the organization and the brilliant cast. There could be no second company in existence, for the simple reason that the talent assembled in the one and only company could not be duplicated in the wide world, and no producer, not even Max Gordon, would have the courage to launch a second company of "Roberta" upon the treacherous highways and byways of this country. So—wherever there were a big downtown million dollar musical in the heyday of the late '20s, there is now only one musical comedy on tour, and it came so near to costing a half million dollars that it will be many a moon before any producer will be able to organize another.

Something should be said in passing about the production of "Roberta"; the top price for both matinee and night is $12.00. That is an advance for the Saturday matinee. The minimum price is 85c. The top price at night is $13.50. There are 300 choice seats for 85c each. The top price is quoted to show the difference in the Chicago rate as against the price in the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York, where this musical comedy ran a solid week for $14.00 top price for best seats. "Roberta" will be presented within a radius of 150 miles of Chicago.

TAMARA, THE YOUNG RUSSIAN GIRL, WHO FIRST HAD "ROBERTA" CAST BY HER, IS NOW IN CHARGE OF THE PRODUCTION OF "ROBERTA" IN CHICAGO.
