

Wheeler-Woolsey in "The Nitwits" at Catlow Sunday

"Chasing Yesterday"; "It's A Small World"; "No More Ladies" Billed

Thursday night, "Les Miserables" will be shown for the last time at the Catlow theatre. Barrington. The roles of Joan Valjean and Javert are taken by Fred March and Charles Laughlin.

On both Friday and Saturday night will occur the special 9 p. m. feature of interest to registered patrons.

The screen program Friday presented Anne Shirley and O. P. Haggie in "Chasing Yesterday," the film version of A. Franco's "The Crime of Sylvester Bonarot." Bonarot's crime was nothing more serious than a little irregularity in the acquisition of a priceless, old book, the search for which had occupied his whole life.

Saturday, Spencer Tracy and Wendie Barry team up in a tangle of cars, love and injustice in the merry, rapid-dre comedy, titled, "It's A Small World."

A crash-up at eighty miles an hour starts a 16-cylinder love match in a one-horse Kansas town, and the result is something bright and jolly in the entertainment line.

Wheeler and Woolsey as comic sleuths combine fast-stepping motor and spin-topping thrills in "The Nitwit," the Sunday-Monday feature at the Catlow.

Betty Grable, a very personable newcomer to the screen is accused of being a blackmaileer, but the relentless clue-tracers, Wheeler and Woolsey, pursue the villain in slapstick fashion and stumble onto the solution.

"Our Gang" comedy, "The Chinese Nightingale," a cartoon done in the new two-color process, and "New and Community singing are added items of interest for this bill.

"No More Ladies" scheduled to play at Catlow next week Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, presents an array of stars plus a sophisticated story under the producing hand of Irving Berlin.

Joan Crawford and Robert Montgomery are co-starred, heading a cast which includes Charles Huggins, Franchot Tone and Edna May Oliver.

The picture opens with a whirlwind romance between Marcia (Joan Crawford) and Sherry (Robert Montgomery), and maintains a rapid-moving tempo until the final fadeout. Marcia is a light-hearted but level-headed society girl whose love life, an incredible heart-breaker, is etched that she submits to wedding bells well within the first reel.
