"Under the Pampa Moon" at Catlow Sunday - Monday

George Arlino Featured "Cardinal Richelieu" for Two Days

The response to the new production of "Becky Sharp" which opened its tour here last night at Catlow Theatre last night and Friday, is highly enthusiastic. It is the general opinion of the dramatic and colorful production of Thackeray's "Vanity Fair" are realistically heightened by the new color process.

The Jack Post feature for tonight's program is scheduled for 8:30 p. m. of this evening. Warner Baxter and Ketti Ballin and Veloz and Yolanda are so many that being included in the center and romance to the Sunday-Monday offering, "Under the Pampa Moon".

In the picture "Buster" takes the part of a South American gaucho, a cowboy of the great plains of the Argentine republic. A modern, down-to-earth and hearty crowd, which roamed the pampa and raided villages before the railroad and civilization settled the country, the gaucho is part Indian, part Indian, part Indian, part Indian, now but not famed.

Veloz and Yolanda, the island dance team that has been a favorite in South America and the United States, are featured in the film in a new sensation "The Cobra Tango". A new colorized short film, "Dance on the Moon," has new comedy and singing will open this program.

At the end of each week, Douglas Cook and Norma Barrie appear in the film "Ladies Love Danger" as a bargain night offering. Thursday, August 15, 1935, following will be given to the presentation of "Cardinal Richelieu" with George Arlino starring.
