New Pupils May Register Now for School Opening

Supervisor E. S. Smith announces rental fees charged on school books.

Preparations for opening of school Tuesday, Sept. 3, are rapidly progressing and pupils will return to find the building greatly improved and in fine condition.

Superintendent E. S. Smith said he will be in his office every day from now until opening day to meet parents and children who are new residents in the village.

Following are the prices to be charged for rental of books and furnishing paper and pencils to students in kindergarten, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades, $1.75; 4th and 5th grades, $2.00; 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th grades, $3.50. Complete information will be furnished next week concerning any changes in the present plans.

St. Anne's School Will Open Classes on September 4th

Classes at St. Anne's parochial school will begin Wednesday, Sept. 4. Father Duffley announced this week.

Attendance this year is expected to be the same as last year, with few new registrations.

Teachers this year will include Sister Mary Lita, Sister Mary Dulcinea and Sister Mary Charles of the order of Saint Francis in Milwaukee, Wis., all of whom taught here last year.

Discontinued this year but additional extra-curriculum classes such as music will remain the same and there will be the regular class work for eight grades.

New improvements have been planned and the building will have been gone over before opening day.

"One-Eye" Falls to Crash Gate at Boxing Show Here

A much heralded and talked world-wide pugilist visited Barrington Friday evening in complete reversal of his usual role.

Connelly visited Barrington to witness the bouts presented to the public at the Northside park. His confusion was great when told at the gate that he was to act as ticket collector thus depriving him of the opportunity to witness the fights.

Connelly in his travels, and they have been many, has acquired a great knowledge of the world and the people in it. He started his career in 1899 when he went to the Corbett-Pittsborough fight in Carson City, Nevada.
