Benson-Schaefer Nuptials Saturday

Miss Irma Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Benson, became the bride of Earl Schaefer, son of John Schaefer, at a quiet home wedding at eight o'clock Saturday evening. The marriage service was read by Rev. W. A. Stauffer of Salem church before an improvised altar of flowers and candles in the presence of members of the immediate families and a few friends. The bridesmaid wore yellow and a corsage of blue flowers. The home had been decorated with baskets of flowers for the wedding and candlelight was used throughout the service.

Fredrick Hornberger of Chicago played a piano prelude and Lehmgren's "Wedding March" for the entrance of the bridal party. Mrs. Hornberger then sang, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "At Dawning." A reception was held following the ceremony and daily refreshments were served to 28 guests. Those from out of town were Mrs. C. H. Savelley of Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. Hornberger of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Biekerfeldt of Medinah, and Mr. and Mrs. William Cosman of Elmhurst. After a short riding trip the young couple are making their home at 539 S. Hoag Street. Mr. Schaefer is employed at Barrington post office. His bride was formerly a teacher at Arlington Heights.
