Nine Persons Hurt in Auto Accidents Near Fox R. Grov.

Collision of Cars Causes Injuries; Other Accident Reported

Nine people were injured, two seriously, in accidents near Fox River Grove over the week-end. A car in which Fred Mullins and his wife Anna and nephew Alvin (Russell) of Chicago were riding collided with one carrying Casper and Virginia Bull and Nancy Knowles of New York City early Saturday afternoon. The accident occurred in both cars. The most serious of the injuries occurred at Algonquin road and North-west highway about 9 p. m. It was reported that Miss Bull's leg was broken and her teeth knocked out. Splinters caused by broken glass had to be removed from Miss Knowles' face. The injured men were guests at the home of E. S. Boasy of Crystal Lake.

Three young people from the Forest camp near Fox River Grove were seriously injured about 2 a. m. Sunday as they were returning to camp from the dance at the Forest camp. The impact caused their car to tip. Miss Irma Clark, gym instructor at the Forest camp, was thrown through the roof of the car and sustained major injuries. Two other occupants, Miss Marie Lagerstrom and twin boys, were also seriously injured and were taken to St. Joseph's hospital, Elgin, for treatment.
