Children and the "Show"
PHYLIA DICK

"Phyllia, you must like to see this show," said the boy, with this offer she came over to ask the thirteen-year-old to go with her to her new neighbor, Phyllia Smith, as the girl had been riding at the show.

"I'll go," she said, looking at the picture to see if it was the same as the one she had seen in the living room where her mother sat sewing.

"That's the one," said Phyllia, smiling at her mother's excitement. She knew if she would go to the show, she would have to go with her.

"But you said you wanted to go with me," she said, questioning Mrs. Dick.

"I had asked," she said, "if there was a picture to go to today. I've been too busy to go to the show, but I'll go with you."

"I really don't know what it is," she said, "but I'll go with you."

"I don't know what they are," she said, questioning Mrs. Dick.

"I don't know," she said, "but I'll go with you."

"I don't know," she said, "but I'll go with you."

Campfire Girls

Troop 3 met Tuesday afternoon with its captain, Miss Marian Schroeder. They have resumed work on the hooked rug project undisturbed last spring. Mrs. Emil Miller was at the meeting for a few minutes to make preliminary announcements of the rummage sale to be sponsored by the council.

Troops 1 and 2 will have a meeting this afternoon at three o'clock; there being no classes in the high school. This meeting will take the form of a "pop meeting" the troops having had no meetings for a time.

Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 all Girl Scout troops will assemble and put on a "model meeting" arranged by all the leaders together. Every patrol leader of every troop should work for a perfect attendance for this something special.

The local council of Girl Scouts met by a special meeting Monday afternoon in the classroom of Commodore Mrs. Mildred Miller. Among the business was arranging for a rummage sale to be held December 7 in the scout cabin. Mrs. Emil Miller is general chairman but all Girl Scouts will be working to collect materials and troop committees will help collect and prepare donations. Those who are willing to send things rummaged from closets and attics may call phones 93-W or 72-W.
