

Frank T. Gahlbeck, Brother of Local Resident, Buried

Funeral services for Frank Theodore Gahlbeck, 124 N. Plum Grove avenue, Palatine, veteran autoelevator in this section of the country, were held at his late residence Tuesday afternoon with burial in Huntley cemetery.

Mr. Gahlbeck died Friday morning of paralysis. He had suffered several strokes in recent months.

Frank Gahlbeck was born at Huntley November 15, 1875, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gahlbeck.

He spent his early youth in that community but moved to the Barrington area when he was married to Miss Louise Pagnier. He devoted his life to farming and autoelevatoring.

He is survived by his widow, eight children and two grandchildren. One sister, Mrs. Marie Nagatz, 108 Franklin street, Barrington, also survives him. Mrs. Nagatz is the only survivor in the family of six children, three brothers and three sisters.

Junior Executives of Jewel Tea Co. Leaving for East

Four Will Take Summer Course of Study at Harvard

Four of its younger executives are being sent by Jewel Tea Co. Inc., to the special summer session for executives conducted by the Harvard Graduate school of business administration at Cambridge Mass. during the month of July.

Frank J. Landwer of the Jewel Tea Co. and assistant secretary of the company, and H. W. Dotz, acting assistant general sales manager, will attend the session of problems in sales management.

K. K. Linton, assistant purchasing agent, will attend those on distribution procurement.

H. O. Honnuth of the treasurer office will attend those on presentation of financial statements.

The four plan to take the full-time course with them and to leave either Friday or Saturday.

This special summer session of executives has been presented for a number of years and is considered the outstanding course of its kind in developing a closer liaison between modern industry and the engaged in research of its problems. It was reported. Several executives have taken it in previous years.
