The Birthday Child of the Week

Four birthday children for this week were caught by The Review cameraman as they were enjoying moments in their energetic young lives.

BARRINGTON REVIEW, BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1936

SUZANNE SHEPARD (at left), who will celebrate her fifth birthday Monday, November 23, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Shepard, 206 E. Russell street. When Sunane's picture was snapped she was on her way to enjoy a Halloween party and looked very picturesque and demure in her Hollander costume with Dutch cap and braids.

NOBERT ALLEN DEIIIL (at right), is seen toddling about his parents home on Northwest highway in Palatine township in his new blue coat and blue snow cap. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Delhi, are planning to help him celebrate his first birthday Monday, November 23.

DAVID HENRY KOSS (left), son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Koss, 657 N. Hough street, was quietly contemplating the approach of his first birthday anniversary Tuesday, November 24, as his picture was taken. David eajoys being dressed in his white coat and cap and sitting in the family swing.

NAMEL ROY GILLY IR. (right), won't be five years old until Tuesday, November 24, but he knyw supervising matters on the meday, November 24, but he knyw supervising matters on the heart of the supervision of the supervision towarship. Daniel Jr. was appropriately dressed in warm clothing as he hurried about superintending the fall harvet.

Parents of children whose birthdays are in December are invited to call, write or stop at The Review office this week-end and a cameraman will arrange to take pictures at their convenience. This column is dedicated to the interests of young folks in Barrington and community and no charges are connected with it.
