Miss Mildred Hyman Brinle
of Holy Liposky
 In a beautiful ceremony celebrated at the home of the parents in Xenia, O., Miss Mildred Hyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hyman, was united in marriage to Holy Liposky, of Barrington, Tuesday afternoon.
 Rabbi Burk of Dayton, O., officiated at the ceremony which was witnessed by 75 guests, including relatives and friends from Xenia, O., Chicago, Barrington, Cincinnati, Dayton and New Orleans.
 The bride was given away by her father, the bridegroom, and Dr. Irvin Hyman, of Xenia, brother of the bride, were the officiating ministers at the ceremony. Miss Liposky appeared in a gown of flowered crepe with hand-making accessories and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.
 The bride's gown was of sage-ash satin, fashioned along princess lines and forming a slight train. Her veil of illusion tulle was caught in place with a satin headband, and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids, hydrangeas and lilies of the valley.
 Following the ceremony, 300 guests were received at a reception at Hyman home, where a wedding supper was served. In the evening Miss Hyman and Mr. Liposky were the bride and groom. Mrs. Liposky wears the Mrs. Hyman, parents of the bride, and Mrs. and Mrs. Samuel Liposky, of Barrington, parents of the groom. There were a goodly number of national blue crepe while Mrs. Liposky's gown was of ruffled-crepe blue, which was decorated with corsage of orchids.
 Mrs. Liposky left on a wedding trip late Sunday night. They will reside in Barrington.
