See 1937 as Good Year for Poultry

Efficient Illinois poultrymen expect 1937 to be a fairly good poultry season, particularly the latter part of the year, according to R. R. Alb, extension agent for the Illinois Experiment Station, University of Illinois.

Alb said: "The main thing to be noted on an individual and general production and to general an satisfactory season. On the other hand in the past has been such and especially individual. The average flock owner can well afford to give more attention to disease prevention programs through such necessary measures as brooding and rearing practices."

Two talented residents of Barrington, Mrs. Sybil Pagan Chapak, well-known for her whistling, and Joseph E. Chapak II, violinist, and head of the Chapak Music School, Chicago, will present musical numbers at the Methodist church at 2 p. m. Wednesday when members and guests of the Barrington Woman's club assemble for the March meeting of the organization. Following their selection, Carl A. Christiansen of Chicago will lecture on "Youth of Today" and Mr. and Mrs. Chapak make their home in Barrington Country Club avenue.

Library News

We are calling attention this week to a place on the library shelves where those interested in farming will find books that will be of interest to you. "The Operation, Care and Repair of Farm Machinery," published by the John Deere Co., is a very complete book giving information about nearly all of the farm machinery, as follows: Pumps, rollers, plow bottoms, walking wheels, riding plows, tractor plows, disk plows, harrows, and tractors. This is given on through all the machinery dealing with planting, cultivating, harvesting power machinery and those dealing with soil fertility, in the same thorough manner. "Five Acres," Rain, is a great
