Mrs. Rose, Mother of Mrs. O. Eitters, Is Buried Saturday

Last rites for Mrs. Fredericka Rose, mother of O. Eitters, 633 N. Cook street, were held at a funeral home, 1022 Belmont avenue, Chicago, Saturday morning at Memorial Park cemetery.

Mrs. Rose died at her residence, 3115 N. Hoyne avenue, Chicago, March 11 at the age of 87 years. Mrs. Rose, formerly a resident of the town of Barrington, died May 29, 1864. She came to America at the age of 20 and for a short time lived at Duane, moving from there to Crystal Lake where she made her home for about 15 years. She moved to Chicago 45 years ago to make her final residence.

Her husband, Mr. Eitters, still is survived by three sons, Will and Albert of Chicago and John of Crystal Lake, and by 14 grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

Countryside Garden Class Studies Herbs

Mrs. J. E. McInab entertained the Countryside Garden class at luncheon at her home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. H. W. Dawson recently reviewed "Gardening With Herbs," an unusual book introducing and featuring the many classes of herbs and some of their cooking uses.

Announcement
 Mr. and Mrs. William O'Connor of Cary announced the engagement of their daughter, Eugene Catherine, to Anthony Stephen Poppinga of Crystal Lake at a party in honor of Eugene's 18th birthday this week. The date of the wedding has not been set.

Feature New Band at Aragon-Trianon

Still another popular dance band will be featured as an extraordinary attraction by Chicago's famous "wonder ballroom," the Aragon-Trianon. This band, led by Carl "Deacon" Haines, who will be ably assisted by his long and successful engagements at the Aragon-Trianon in Chicago a few seasons ago. Haines returns to Chicago following a sensational tour of the coast.

"The Deacon" and his versatile crew will be featured with Freddy Martin and his Magic Moosie at the northside Aragon on Saturday night for an hour of continuous dancing pleasure.

Mr. Hainey, Haines and his band will move out to the westside Trianon, there to share honors with Kay Kiser and his popular orchestra for matinee and evening dancing.—Ad.

F. A. Schaubles Returns From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaubles, 247 North avenue, returned to Barrington Friday after a month's motor trip to California and points of interest in the west. During their travels the Schaubles covered 4500 miles and visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schultz in California.

"They made Santa Monica, Calif. their base while visiting the state and also visited Boulder Dam and other sites along the river west."

"One-way to Florida"
 "I have known automobiles," said Mr. Schaubles, "who could figure accurately on a solar eclipse, but whose mathematical sciences did not enable them to tell for some days a month ago would be foolwitted."
