

"After the Thin Man" Billed for Sunday, Monday

"Lays of London," Starring Freddie Bartholomew, on Week's Bill

The thrills and drama of the best of the states in the world with the charm and traditions of the old south, furnish the interesting background for "After the Thin Man," which comes Saturday to the Caley theatre.

This original humor-interest film play features an absorbing romance and delightful comedy scenes in most appropriate vehicle to introduce cheery Spanky McParland as the sweet and snoot, sensation of juvenile screen stars. It gives full scope to the mischievous antics, hilarious capers and ingenuities of Spanky in the array of bits to round out a full evening of entertainment for grownups as well as charming Little Milton Powell and Maria Loy the merriest, maddest merriest couple ever come some Hollywood, step from the last thrilling scene of "The Thin Man" to the first hilarious chapter of the sequel.

Three new song hits are featured in "After the Thin Man," starring Lawrence Tibbett, who comes to the Caley Tuesday. "My Little Girl," "Amigo," and "My Little Nutcracker."

Lawrence Tibbett's supporting cast includes Wendy Barrie, Greerory Baker and Arthur Treacher. "The Holiday," "My Little Girl," "Amigo," and "My Little Nutcracker." Tibbett and Eileen Land, Egan Pitts, Ted Healy and Eddie Kennedy, in double featured with "Under Your Spell," Tuesday.

The great Spanish dinner, custom appeared, and quite reserved and charmingly Freddie Bartholomew in his second appearance as it means just the outward restraint he so evades over an energetic, mischievous boy's spirit during the hours before the camera.

His delightful "Lays of London," which opens Wednesday, declared the boy to be a young Briton, exhibiting in three or four directions at the same time.

Starred with Freddie Bartholomew, leading the cast include Fred Power, C. Aubrey Smith and Virginia Fawn.

Senate Bill No. 1 to create a state board of education should be amended according to the Illinois Education association, removing certain powers given to the proposed board of education by the bill. H. C. Moore, executive secretary of the Illinois Education association had long favored the creation of a state board of education. He expressed the hope that Senate Bill No. 1 should be amended, removing the objectionable features. He pointed out that the chief need of a state board of education is in this line to investigate such conditions and report them, with recommendations for improvement.

The legislative committee of the Illinois Education association recently voted, according to Mr. Moore, to support House Bill No. 246, amending the 3 per cent occupational tax to public utilities, some other bills and that the association are House Bill No. 352, providing for providing penalties and forfeitures on various taxing bodies. Senate Bill No. 20 and House Bill No. 15, providing a 5-cent tax per thousand cubic feet of natural gas piped into Illinois. Senate Bills No. 147, 148, and 149, providing an increase of the state distributive fund to $29,728,000. Senate Bills No. 151, and 152, revising the teacher pension law. House Bill No.
