

God's Country and the Woman" Billed Sunday, Monday "Three Smart Girls," Benefit of School Orchestra, Starts Wednesday

They G. Fisher, have been kept busy in the courts of Waukegan and Rockford. Judge Daily has interrupted the court procedure at Waukegan at least one week to take up matters at Woodstock, while Judge Fisher has journeyed to Rockford.

Marital quarrels at the rate of one a minute, a marriage the legal result of such frequent divorces, and various news-gaps, and mysterious deaths, with romances rampant in spite of the fact that the "Three Smart Girls" is the feature of Friday and Saturday at the Casino Theatre.

It has been pointed out that the heavy burden placed on the two judges and the amount of court work standing, has caused a general breakdown in the judicial system.

More-Colorful-Merry's latest novel of such features Robert Brown as the business man bridegroom, and Ann Scherer as the young bride who keeps him in constant hot water.

A very interesting, we might say, beautiful birthday party was held in the parlor of the First Baptist church, sponsored by the Altruist society, Thursday evening, March 17, at which time a dinner of creamed chicken, with its embellishments, was served.

The thrilling dramatic romance of the story is heightened by the fact that the scenes—almost all of which are in the open—were photographed fully in natural color.

The decorations consisted of twelve tables, each one representing a month of the year. January showed an arena for skating and sailing, with the customary "hand-sock" race; February reminiscence of Lincoln with the red, white and blue candles in rustic holders, which called to mind our beloved George Washington;

"Three Smart Girls," starring Glenn Farrell and Barton MacLane, is also on the bill Tuesday evening, and "The Great Train Robbery" with "Trail Dust." Millions have heard the glorious soprano voice of Deanna Durbin singing on Eddie Cantor's radio.

BETTER LIGHT ... BETTER SIGHT

GOOD LIGHT ADDS CHARM AND BEAUTY TO OUR HOME!

Take Advantage of Our New Lighting Service ... Offered Without Charge to Residents of Barrington

Good light can be the most attractive as well as useful elements of a home. Without it, the most tastefully designed and decorated room may lack the attractiveness it deserves. But with it, even drably furnished interiors can be made colorfully charming and beautiful than ever before.

The Public Service Company is now offering to every home a new lighting service. Our Home Lighting Advisors, thoroughly trained in home lighting and the interior arts are anxious to help you with interesting and practical suggestions. We invite you to learn these new facts when one of our Lighting Advisors comes to your home. Although she has no lighting equipment to sell, she will be glad to explain the close relationship between lighting, eye conservation and general health, particularly in the case of growing children.

There is no charge for this service. Should you wish to have a Lighting Advisor call at a particular time, just call your Public Service office and tell us your preference.
