

Silver Jubilee of Campfire Girls Is Celebrated Monday

Rev. Stauffer Is Speaker at Council Fire in Scout Cabin

A silver jubilee affair of the local campfire girls was held at the scout cabin Monday evening in connection with national celebration of the 25th anniversary of the campfire girl organization.

Barrington women who had been campfire girls were invited to attend the ceremony. Many of the attendees was a delegation from St. Charles.

Following the W.-H. Lo call and singing of the national marching service took place and campfire girls were awarded medals and honors by their leader, Mrs. Stanley Carr. Rev. Charles Drueger presided over the exercises.

Rev. W. A. Stauffer, speaker of the evening, summarized the opportunity for cooperation, development and character building for the campfire girls. He stressed the need for ideas and the benefits to be derived from association with others working toward the same goal.

Throughout the anniversary were wearing their uniforms in accordance with instructions from national headquarters. Each girl had a part in a united activity each day of the festival. The affair was in the scout cabin Wednesday afternoon by their guardians, Mrs. Carr.

Rob Home While Family Is Absent; Steal Gems, Money

Entering the home some time before the family was absent, burglars entered the residence and stole a large quantity of jewelry and money.

The manner in which entrance was gained is not known. The doors or windows failed to show any signs of being forced. It is believed a skeleton key was used as a door lock.

The burglar discovered the home Saturday when he went to get some mail from the post office. He was wearing a heavy coat and a hat. He was seen by the family.

It is believed the culprit entered the home when the family was absent. The burglar was seen by the family.

Mother of Mrs. T. F. Dockery Victim of Heart Attack

Mrs. M. F. Dockery, 521 North Washington street, died of a heart attack Saturday afternoon at 4:30 p. m. after a long illness.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the residence. The interment will be in the cemetery.

Clark Reports Oil Light and Power Bills Paid

For the first time in a number of years the village of Barrington was without a power outage. The village is again on a cash basis for the payment of bills.

The village is again on a cash basis for the payment of bills. The village is again on a cash basis for the payment of bills.

Review Will Sponsor Free Moving Picture Cooking School Here

"The Bride Goes Out," an entertaining movie, will be shown at the Cookery school, 115 North Washington street, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons May 15 to 17.

The cooking school, moved by the National Educational Association and professional society, will be sponsored by the Review.

No admission will be charged. Details of the plan will be published in this Review next week.

Local Music Groups Entering Contests

Members of the Barrington high school orchestra are preparing for the annual contest. The group will perform at the school on Thursday.

Members of the Capella club will travel to Rign State Saturday to enter the district contest. The group will perform at the school on Thursday.

Plan to Organize Contractor Group; Meeting Held Here

Forty men attend session to include All Trades in Proposed Unit. The meeting was held at the school on Thursday.

Members of the Barrington community are organizing a contractor group. The group will include all trades.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a better building schedule, create interest in construction and arbitrate questions pertaining to that line of work.

Bids for Alterations on Scout Club School. The school is located at 115 North Washington street.

Local Garden Clubs Win Ribbons for Entries at Chicago Show

Barrington exhibits at the flower show now in progress on Navy Pier received several ribbons. The show will continue through the week.

The show will continue through the week. The show will continue through the week.

The show will continue through the week. The show will continue through the week.

The show will continue through the week. The show will continue through the week.

Two Killed When Train Hits Auto Tuesday Morning

Drive in Front of Speeding
Express at Fox River
Crossing

Two men were killed instantly when their automobile was struck by a limited Chicago and North Western passenger train at the Main street crossing in Fox River Tuesday morning.

The victims of the crash were Hans Sorenson, 25 years old, 4608 Wroughton avenue, Chicago, driver of the car, and the Larson, 51 years old, 1047 Hamilton avenue, Chicago, employed as a caretaker on a small estate owned by Mrs. Marianne Benn in the south village.

The men had resided in Chicago prior to their work on the place a short time ago.

The speeding train, on route from Chicago to Rock Island, was one which does not stop at the crossing.

Sorenson and his companion it was learned, were returning from a business trip to Cary and apparently failed to see the warning lights of the train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The accident occurred in view of the fact that the village was in the near vicinity of the main street crossing.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

3 School Districts To Elect Trustees

Three school districts will hold elections Saturday with five officers to be elected. The districts are: No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a better building schedule, create interest in construction and arbitrate questions pertaining to that line of work.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a better building schedule, create interest in construction and arbitrate questions pertaining to that line of work.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a better building schedule, create interest in construction and arbitrate questions pertaining to that line of work.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a better building schedule, create interest in construction and arbitrate questions pertaining to that line of work.

The purpose of the organization is to provide a better building schedule, create interest in construction and arbitrate questions pertaining to that line of work.

Lower Grades to Present Musical Program at School

Will Show Training in Music
at Gymnasium
Friday

The music department of Barrington public school will present a demonstration of class room work in the lower grades at the school gymnasium Friday afternoon.

The program will begin at 2 p. m. and will include singing in the kindergarten, first, second, third, fourth and fifth grades.

Each teacher will announce the number for her class according to Miss Adelaide Wever, music supervisor.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

The following demonstration of the high way main street, however, pulled directly in front of the speeding train.

Glee Clubs to Give Concert Here

Students of Barrington high school will present a concert sponsored by the Christian Commission class on Wednesday evening, April 14, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

The concert will be held at the school. The concert will be held at the school.

Results of Elections

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Results of the election for the town of Barrington. The results are as follows:

Town Elections Poll Shows With Few Upsets

Plague Defeats Cadwallader
Green Retains Office
Washie Wins Out

Election returns from the town of Barrington, Ill. and the present a varied picture with the majority of incumbent officers being re-elected.

Supervisor V. Hawley and Clerk H. Bond received strong complimentary votes, having no opposition. The new collector was a close one, returns from the poll showing a narrow margin.

In the three-cornered race for town assessor, H. C. Plague went into office, defeating C. W. Green, incumbent, and William W. Washie.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.

Incumbent William W. Washie, high way commissioner, was re-elected. Charles A. Johnson, justice of the peace, was re-elected.