

George Atkins, 60, Buried Wednesday

Funeral services for George F. Atkins, 60 years old, 220 E. Main street, were held at the Poeschke funeral home, 402 E. Main street, Wednesday afternoon with Rev. H. L. Bagle officiating. Burial was in Acacia cemetery in Norwood Park. Mr. Atkins died Sunday following an illness of seven weeks. He suffered from diabetes, and was taken to the Wauegan hospital on May 24. His death came within two months of his wife's, Emma Atkins, who died March 15. The deceased was born at Dayton, O., on November 16, 1876, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Atkins. Following his marriage to Emma Kistler, the couple moved to Barrington 30 years ago where they engaged in the restaurant and hotel business. In addition to running his establishment in Barrington, Mr. Atkins spent considerable time during the last several years at his farm near Dayton. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Emma Atkins, a son, Robert, and a sister, Mrs. L. E. Murphy, all of Barrington.

Probate Two Wills
in Court This Week
The wills of the late John Brommelkamp of Barrington and the late Mary Otendorf of Palatine were entered for probate in the Cook county probate court this week.

The will of Mr. Brommelkamp, who died December 4, 1932, of an estate estimated at $11,000, of which $10,000 is in real estate. He left all his personal effects to his wife, a son Harry to receive $100 and another son Ben and daughter Irma are to receive $25 each.

The remainder is left to his wife and upon her death the balance will be shared equally by their children, Laura Selpp, Ellen Ehlers, Leo Raymond, Grace and Edwin, or their survivors.

The estate of Mrs. Otendorf, who died April 9, is estimated at $2000 in real estate and is to be divided equally among three sons and the children of a fourth son, who will receive a share to be held in trust.

The late Anna Peck of Chicago, who died March 8, willed her $10,000 estate entirely to her cousin, Charles Hall, of Palatine.

August. The day after their return to Barrington, they drove down to the state fair. Ninety-five years old today, Mr. Jackson has lived on the old homestead since November 4, 1842, when at the age of five months he arrived in a covered wagon with his parents and family from the town of Cicero in New York, six miles from Syracuse. In that excursion were the senior Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, George, his sister Catherine, his grandmother, Mrs. Anna Merwin and an aunt, Nancy Merwin. George has been born at Cicero June 3, 1842.

G. Jackson, 95 Today, Drives Away Gypsies

Harvey got the gun and the intruders were forced out of the house. In the meantime a third woman had attacked and frisked Miss Grace Jackson who was outside the house.

After the three women and a male companion, who had been mentally stationed at the steering wheel of their automobile, drove away, the Jacksons discovered that $1.75 had been stolen from a small purse in a table drawer.

The 95th birthday celebration, postponed from Thursday to next Sunday, will be attended by Mr. Jackson, Harvey Jackson, Miss Grace, Mrs. Brandt, her sons Erwin and Robert and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Batten of Elgin, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson and one or more of their sons in Chicago. Charles is the son of George's late half brother. Mr. Jackson accompanied his grandson, Erwin and his family on a five-day motor trip across Wisconsin to Superior and Duluth last week.
