Local Standard Oil Men Sponsor Free Movie Here June 26

Following the path blazed in motion pictures by "Lloyds of London," and other popular films which dramatize the romance of a business institution, "Stan," sponsored by the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and produced here with a cast of 400, will soon be released for showings by company representatives and dealers in the central west. It was announced today.

Showing will be at the Barrington high school auditorium Saturday, June 26. There will be a matinee at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for children and the evening performance will start at 8 o'clock. It is sponsored in Barrington by the following: Burton Hoffman, A. J. Gardner, J. E. Montgomery, Schulte Bros. and Collins, dealers, and Ward Olmsted, agent.

$650 Collected for Camp Algonquin

The first report of collections made for the Camp Algonquin fund shows a sum of $650 already collected with possibilities of the final figure reaching $750, according to Miss Margaret Hecht, chairman of the drive.

Miss Hecht entertained her committee at a tea Monday afternoon at the home of her parents. At that time reports were made by various individuals and the sums taken from the Camp Algonquin boxes counted. The campaign officially opened June 3 at a luncheon held in the home of Mrs. Potter Smith.
