It is known as "Fools" evening in Vienna and great crowds come on the French Riviera at Nice to witness the burning of His Majesty, King Carnival. In Italy, the peasants gather to invent the weight of the crops about to be sown.

In England, at Okeley, in Buckinghamshire, a "Pancake-Race" is held, while at Westminster school in London the students celebrate with the "Tossing of the Pancake." This is often the only time of the year when families eat their beds.
