John E. Froelich Republican Candidate for Sheriff of Lake County

John E. Froelich, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for Sheriff of Lake County, has had ten years experience as a deputy sheriff in Lake County and four years experience as a police sergeant at Lake Forest.

Froelich, who is 38 years old, was born on a farm in Elia township near Lake Zurich, was graduated from the Lake Zurich Schools and Northwestern Business College. He is married and has two children.

His experience includes service under Sheriff Lawrence Doolittle and two former sheriffs of Lake County. During that time he has been a bailiff in circuit, county and probate courts and has been financial deputy sheriff in charge of service of all writs, summons, executions, attachments, levies, bonds, and redemptions.

John Froelich's excellent record and all around service qualify him for the office of sheriff, and he is seeking the republican nomination subject to the will of the voters of Lake County.

Dramatic Club Busy With Play; Will Be Given March 24-25

The Dramatic club of the Barrington high school will present a three-act mystery drama, "The Call of the Banishes" Thursday and Friday evenings, March 24 and 25, at the school auditorium.

The play opens at 8 o'clock, Miss Georgina M. White of the high school faculty, who is directing rehearsals for the production, stated.

It has been in rehearsal for the past three weeks. Action is based on the happenings in the queer, old house in which Peter Adair, an eccentric old man, lives.

Despite the efforts of a Boston spinner, who does not approve of the supernatural, bedlam breaks loose in the play. In the house are a hypnotist, his Indian servant, Yura, and Hilda, a Scandinavian maid. From time to time a mysterious death occurs to keep the audience in suspense.

Committees selected to assist in the production are as follows: Warren Jahake, Richard Koenig, Robert Lindberg, Arthur Castle, Harold Lipofsky, Marshall Stamer, Robert Schroeder, stage builder; Ruth Brover, Wilma Calkins, Emil Noffs, Bonmie Plazge, Elaine Pauker, Patricia Rutledge, properties; Evelyn Jeppen, Norrine Beerman, Norrine Saas, Shirley Bieleche, costumes; Yvonne Lewis, make-up; Arnold Kohmert, Robert Daeschler, stage properties; Bruce Miller, Hugh Waterman, lighting.
