

"A Yank at Oxford" Is Week-End Bill at Catlow Theatre

"Of Human Hearts," Starring Walter Huston, Coming Wednesday

"Penrod and His Twin Brother" brings to the screen both of the brilliant 15-year-old March twins who made such a tremendous hit in "The Prince and the Pauper," instead of merely Billy who was alone in the first of the series. The same director, William Modann, who won such a triumph in "Penrod and Sam," scores splendidly in the current photoplay, at the Catlow Friday and Saturday.

Once again, playing Penrod's parents, are Frank Craven and Spring Byington. Jackie Morrow, the little meane, once more portrays Penrod's chief boy enemy. That little 10-year-old Negro lad, Phillip Hurlie, does his usual role of Vernon.

"A Yank at Oxford," starring Robert Taylor, and with such American and British favorites as Lionel Barrymore, Maureen O'Sullivan, Vivien Leigh, Edmund Gwenn and Griffith Jones in prominent supporting roles, opens a two-day engagement at the Catlow starting Sunday.

The story, as the title indicates, relates the adventures of the star athlete of a small American college who is awarded a scholarship to Oxford. Robert Taylor enacts the title role. Maureen O'Sullivan is seen as the English girl whom he meets at the university. Griffith Jones plays her brother, Vivien Leigh is the flirtatious wife of an Oxford bookseller, who becomes involved with the undergraduates. Lionel Barrymore plays the American father who has made many sacrifices to send his boy to Oxford, and who comes to see him stroke the Oxford boat to victory over Cambridge, only to discover that his son has been "sent down." Sparkling with the comedy and romance which surrounds the efforts of a group of pretty society girls to make history as editors and reporters on a big city newspaper, "A Girl With Ideas" has been booked for showing at the Catlow Tuesday.

Double featured with "A Girl With Ideas" is "Daredevil Detective," with Beverly Roberts and Dick Purcell.

Walter Huston heads a sterling cast of well-known players in "Of Human Hearts," dramatic story of the Civil war which comes to the Catlow Wednesday for three days.

As Ethan Wilkins, an itinerant minister, whose quiet sacrifices make possible for an ungrateful son to become a famous surgeon, Huston has been given his most powerful acting role since "Dodsworth."

State Departments Favor Forest Fire Prevention Plans

"The necessity for care in the prevention of woods and field fires is becoming more important each day. Recent rains have aided in keeping such fires to a minimum, but should any prolonged period of little or no precipitation occur, destructive fires will become more and more frequent in making our fire protection problem very difficult." By this statement Thomas J. Lynch, acting director of the department of conservation, voiced a hope for the utmost cooperating of everyone residing within the state.

The division of forestry, of the department of conservation, is actively attempting to initiate a forest fire protection program in Illinois. Representatives of the division of forestry are engaged in making a preliminary survey of what steps are necessary in the future to adequately prevent fires and suppress any that may occur.

Through the medium of meetings and individual contacts with local land owners, farmers and interested organizations, it is hoped that the start of the 1938 fire season will find adequate measures in force to protect against the usual fire loss. The division of forestry will organize test fire prevention and suppression groups in several localities as a means of perfecting present tentative plans. Suggestions and requests for information concerning the proposed fire protection program should be sent to Thomas J. Lynch, acting director of the department of conservation, or the division of forestry at Springfield, or the district forester, at Benton.
