

Grace Moore Stars on Catlow Screen Sunday, Monday

"I'll Take Romance" Features Songstress and Melvyn Douglas

Paul Kelly gives Joe E. Brown a few lessons in the art of foreign newspaper corresponding in "Fit for a King," the comedian's newest starring comedy coming to the Catlow theatre for one day only on Friday.

Cast as rival news-gatherers, the two actors lead each other a merry chase all over France, with Kelly, the more experienced of the two, winning all honors until Brown learns the tricks and then adds a few of his own.

There may be all sorts of insidious propaganda directed against the old rocking-chair, but Ann Southern, lovely actress starred with Jack Haley, Mary Boland and Edward Everett Horton, in "Danger—Love at Work," will brave all jokes at her expense for the unparalleled comfort such chairs afford.

Discovering some time ago that she could relax better between scenes in a rocker than in one of the usual folding camp chairs, Miss Southern introduced Mary Boland to this innovation in off-stage comfort during the filming of the comedy which comes to the Catlow Saturday. Now, the old rocking-chair has got them both.

Grace Moore and Melvyn Douglas, the man who made Theodora Wild, sing and swing their carefree way from glamorous Manhattan to the smoky Argentine in Columbia's new musical, "I'll Take Romance," which opens Sunday for two days at the Catlow.

Grace is utterly madcapivating... as Melvyn shows her how to sing those "torrid torch tunes," it's Grace Moore at her merriest!

Peter Lorre is starred in the newest and most exciting adventure of the Saturday Evening Post's master of crime detection, "Thank You, Mr. Moto," coming Tuesday to the Catlow. Thomas Beck, Pauline Frederick, Jayne Regan, Sidney Blackmer, Sig Ruman and John Carradine are featured in the cast.

On the double feature bill on Tuesday with "Thank You, Mr. Moto," is the newest Buck Jones film, "Smoke Tree Range." Proclaimed as the greatest motion picture ever made with an undersea boat as its subject and locale, "Submarine D-1" has been booked as the feature attraction at the Catlow opening next Wednesday for a three day engagement.

It is a Warnr Bros. melodrama co-starring Pat O'Brien and George Brent, and featuring Wayne (Kid Galahad) Morris. In the making of it the United States navy department deserves as much credit as the movie folk, for it threw open its submarine establishments at San Diego, Cocos Coc in the Panama Canal Zone, and Newport, R. I.

INTO THE KETTLE

Have you ever tried adding variety to common household favorites like meat loaf? Mrs. Howard Brintlinger has a recipe which calls for a row of hard boiled eggs down the middle of the loaf. When cut, the slices are very attractive with their egg centers.

Mrs. Brintlinger's recipe is as follows:
MEAT LOAF
1 lb. fresh ground pork.
1 lb. ground smoked ham.
2 eggs.
1/2 cup bread crumbs.
1 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce.
1 onion (chopped fine).
1/2 cup green pepper (chopped fine).
1/2 cup catsup.
Salt and pepper.

Mix. Form loaf in buttered bread pan. Lay three hard boiled eggs in a row down the center of the loaf. Bake in moderate oven hour.

Au gratin potatoes and fresh buttered peas form a perfect complement to this dish.

For dessert, we suggest ice cream and some of Mrs. H. K. Tucker's delicious orange cookies. Here is her recipe:

Orange Bars
1/2 lb. candied orange slices.
4 eggs.
2 1/4 cups brown sugar.
2 cups flour.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1 cup nut meats.
Dice orange slices. Sprinkle with 2 or 3 tablespoons flour.
Beat eggs light. Add salt, sugar and flour (less amount used for dredging candy slices). Fold in nut meats and orange slices. Turn into pan 9x9 in. or into small square pans, lined with wax paper. Bake in moderate oven (350°) for 30 minutes. Cut in strips while warm. Roll in powdered sugar.

Cuba Township Man in Hospital After Being Hit by Truck

CUBA TOWNSHIP.—Ray Michaels, resident of Cuba township, is a patient at the Waukegan hospital suffering of injuries and exposure caused when he was struck by a truck driven by William Tatro near Michaels' home Saturday evening.

Mr. Michaels was walking along a gravel road to the home of a neighbor when the truck approached him. Stepping to one side, he slid and fell to the ground. In an effort to halt the truck, Tatro applied the brakes, but the machine skidded into the fallen man, it was learned.

He was brought to Barrington where a medical examination revealed his injuries were slight but he was taken to Waukegan where it was feared pneumonia might develop due to exposure.

First United States Coin Issued
The first United States coin ever issued was minted in New York in 1787. It was a "Franklin penny" designed by a coppersmith named Jarvis.

Height of Prehistoric Man
An examination of numerous fossil skeletons leads to the conclusion that prehistoric men were not much, if any, taller than modern men.
