Young Artist Will Address Members of State Garden Clubs Members of three local garden clubs, the Garden Club of Barrington, Countryside Garden club, and Village Garden club, have been invited to hear a series of lectures by Blue Clare Cosensworth of Los Angeles, Calif. at the Palmer House, Chicago, sponsored by the Garden Club of Illinois. Dates of lectures are as follows: 2 p. m., Thursday, Feb. 17; 10:30

a. m., Friday, Feb. 18; 2 p. m., Friday, Feb. 18. Miss Cosensworth, a young artist, is known for her ability as a designer and as a colorist. In her garden she raises a variety of native and sub-tropical plants to provide materials with which she works as she has the feeling that locally as well as season should be expressed in the "mood" of arrangement.

Her lectures will concern Victorian, modern and oriental arrangements. Will Hold Lecture and Tour at Anti-Cruelty Home Feb. 5 Dr. W. A. Young, manager of the Anti-Cruelty society of Chicago, will give an informal discussion on "Humane Education" at the new home of the society, 157 W. Grand avenue, Chicago, on Saturday, Feb. 5, according to information received from Mrs. Madeline Muhlbart, secretary to Dr. Young. Mrs. Muhlbart resides in Lake Zurich.

The informal discussion will consist of a tour through the society's new home, pictures slides and an inspection of animals to be placed in homes for adoption. The lecture will start at 2 o'clock and continue to 4 o'clock. The selection of officers of the association for the coming year will also take place. Present officers of the association are: Dr. E. H. Smith, president; Mrs. K. H. Niblack, vice-president; Mrs. Gerard Posland, Secretary; and Harry A. Hill, Treasurer.

No Building in January. There were no building permits issued during the month of January by Herman Garbach, building commissioner. Although activity is slow at present, several residences are contemplated soon, it was reported. Classified Ads Bring Results

Lake County T.B. Assn. Will Elect New Officers Today The annual meeting and luncheon of the Lake County Tuberculosis association will be held at the Waukegan hotel, Thursday noon, February 3. Dr. Charles K. Potter, newly appointed superintendent and medical director of the Lake county tuberculosis sanatorium, will be the chief speaker of the meeting.

Following the luncheon and talk by Dr. Potter, Mrs. Mabel McCullough, chairman of the nominating committee, will read the selection for board members who will serve for the next three years. Those whose terms expire this year are: J. L. Clements, Lake Zurich; Mrs. Gerald Fogland, Winthrop Harbor; Mrs. Halbert Handelman, Ingleside; Mrs. Earl Kane, Mundelein; Mrs. Mable McCullough, Gurnee; Mrs. Austin Niblack, Lake Forest; Dr. E. H.
