

The Awful Truth, Comedy Feature, Coming to Catlow

Stand-In Featuring Joan Blondell and L. Howard, Is Scheduled

Joan Parker, beautiful young screen star who made a hit a year ago in "Requies," a picture of the woods, has been cast again in an outdoor part for "The Barrier," which comes to the Catlow theatre Saturday.

Miss Parker is seen as Nacia, the daughter of an American trader and his Indian wife, who runs a post in Kamboon, Alaska, during the gold rush. Playing opposite her in the film is the young outdoor star, James Ellison.

Commencing Sunday "The Awful Truth," starring Irene Dunne and Cary Grant, with Ralph Bellamy, Alexander D'Arcy, Cecil Cunningham and Robert Allen in support, will occupy the Catlow screen for a 2-day engagement.

Also in prominent role is "Shipley," the "This Man" wire-hair rump masquerading as Mr. Smith. "The Awful Truth" tells of the final life between "Mrs." Irene Dunne and "Mr." Cary Grant which leads to the divorce court. There, in what is said to be the most hilarious courtroom scene ever filmed, they battle for the custody of Mr. Smith with Irene the victor. Cary, however, the court's permission to visit the dog once a month.

Love, it seems, has no respect for divorce decrees, for the moment Cary announces his intention to re-marry, Miss Dunne sets out to win her man again by methods hilarious though perhaps not cricket.

The entire ice hockey squads of the University of Southern California and Loyola university were drafted to enact the exciting hockey game scenes in Columbia's "The Game That Kills," showing Tuesday at the Catlow. The games were staged under the technical advice of Arnold Eddy, U.S.C. coach. Charles Quigley and Rita Hayward are featured in the picture.

Playing the double feature bill Tuesday with "The Game That Kills," is "High Flyers," with Wheeler and Woolsey, and featuring Lupe Velez.

Aspirin tablets and other headache remedies were sought by Leslie Howard during the filming of Walter Wanger's "Stand-In," in which he will be co-starring with Joan Blondell at the Catlow Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The action called for Alan Mowbray to hit Howard in the jaw during an argument at a lawn party. Director Tay Garnett, was not satisfied with the first "hit" and the jaw-slacking scene was shot five times.

When the director finally okayed the scene, Howard staggered to the studio hospital to receive first aid treatment for a badly skinned jaw and a severe headache.

Lake County T. B. Assn. Campaigning for Early Diagnosis

Miss Orpha White of the Lake County Tuberculosis association reports that county tuberculosis associations throughout the state are pausing in their Christmas Seal sale activities to formulate plans for this year's early diagnosis campaign.

The 11th annual campaign for the early diagnosis of tuberculosis will open officially on April 1st. Despite the fact that it is three months away, posters and pamphlets to be used are already being ordered by the Lake County Tuberculosis association.

The slogan of this year's campaign is, "Tuberculosis Undiscovered Endangers You." By "you" is meant the individual, the family and the community. This nationwide campaign, while especially emphasized during April, is used in Illinois the year around. It is emphasized that early discovery of tuberculosis insures early recovery from that disease.

The Illinois Tuberculosis association, in describing the campaign material, says: "If tuberculosis is undiscovered in an individual, he or she is in danger. Chest X-rays will find it.

"If tuberculosis is undiscovered in the family, the growing children are in great danger. The
