

"Rosalie," Musical Comedy Hit, Coming to Catlow Theatre

Eleanor Powell and Nelson Eddy Star in Feature Opening Sunday

Benny Goodman, born in Chicago, first played clarinet in boys' band of a synagogue when only 9... was eighth child among eleven, son of a poor tailor earning $20 a week... played in pickup bands around Chicago streets with clarinet brought from errand-running money... first regular job with famed Dixie Redbecks on a Chicago river excursion boat, then at Green Mill night spot... formed first individual band in 1931, worked in first big musical... in 1934 first got on air for big biscuit company... moved upward constantly after that... is now 27, unmarried, 6 feet tall, dark-haired, getting rich swiftly, allowing sister to manage finances... is the current idol of the college trade of American... present picture, "Hollywood Hotel," now at the Catlow theatre.

Victor Moore, who plays the role of grandfather in "Make Way for Tomorrow," a story of American life which comes to the Catlow Saturday is a veteran of many years. In the sympathetic role of head of a large family of middle-aged children and modern life-loving grandchildren, Moore enacts one of the most powerful roles of a career which began over forty years ago.

"Rosalie," which co-stars Nelson Eddy and Eleanor Powell, and opens at the Catlow Sunday for a two day run, is described as the most lavish musical in the annals of motion pictures.

With Miss Powell and Eddy are seen such favorites as Frank Morgan, Edna May Oliver, Ray Bolger, the new European singing sensation Ilona Massey, Billy Gilbert, Reginald Owen and dozens of others.

The story concerns the love and adventures of a West Pointer who follows his girl to Europe only to discover she's a princess. A thrilling series of events bring them together again.

A kids' prize-fight scene is one of the comedy highlights in "Love Is on the Air," featuring Ronald Reagan and Jane Travis. It comes to the Catlow Tuesday.

Playing the double feature bill Tuesday with "Love Is on the Air," is "Hawaiian Buckaroo," starring Smith Bailey.

Into the Kettle

An appetizing and novel luncheon including "Soup Supreme," home-made whole wheat sticks, a combination fresh fruit salad, coffee and little cakes is suggested today by Mrs. Lester Higgins.

The following recipes are among Mrs. Higgins' favorites:

WHOLE WHEAT STICKS
 1 cake yeast dissolved in 1/4 cup lukewarm water.
 1 1/2 cups milk.
 3 tb. shortening.

1/4 t. salt.
 1 tb. sugar.
 1 egg.
 1 1/2 cups whole wheat flour.
 1 cup rye flour.

2 cups white flour.
 Scald milk. Add shortening, sugar, salt. When lukewarm add yeast, egg, whole wheat, rye and half of white flour. Let rise until doubled in size. Knead 15 minutes, adding rest of flour. Roll mixture, cut in strips about 1/4 in. wide, 2 inches long. Roll into size of lead pencil. Bake in 350° oven about 1/4 hr. Should be dry and crisp. May be made ahead and heated just before serving.

SOUP SUPREME
 1 large carrot, shredded.
 1 large potato.
 Cook together. Put through ricer.

Add 2 cans cream of mushroom soup.
 1 pt. milk.
 Mince parsley.
 Paprika.
 Onion juice.

Just before serving, stir in 1 egg well beaten.

Little cakes can be made easily, quickly and economically with the subsequent recipe. They are delicious topped with a simple icing made of confectionery sugar, butter, salt and cream to which a bit of lemon juice is added.

LITTLE CAKES
 4 EGGS.
 3 cups sugar.
 1/4 t. salt.
 2 cups sour cream.
 2 t. soda.

8 cups flour.
 2 cream tartar.
 Beat eggs thoroughly. Fold in other ingredients as listed. Bake in well-greased cup cake tins in moderate oven (350°) about 25 minutes.
