Prominent Speaker Will Address Bird Club Here Mar. 10

Alfred M. Baily, director of the Colorado museum of natural history, will address members of the Barrington Bird Club at the Masonic hall on Cook Street Thursday evening, March 10. The meeting will start at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Baily will illustrate his lecture by showing some interesting and unusual colored pictures, among them being birds never before photographed in their natural color. He is an interesting and well-known lecturer. All members of the Bird Club and their friends have been invited.

Village Building at Low Ebb for Second Month; Expect Gain

For the second successive month building activity in the village of Barrington was at a standstill. No permits were issued by Herman Garbisch, building commissioner, for either January or February. However, a check of the records for the past several years revealed that the two months had not sustained any building since 1934, which was the last year in which permits were issued for those periods. Several new residences are being planned for the early spring. It was reported, and other indications show promise that the building trade will soon become active.
