

Barrington Baseball Team Defeated in Its Home Debut Sunday

Commit 8 Errors to Allow Kenosha Easy Win Sunday

Will Travel Sunday to Play Maple Grove; Game Here Again Shortly

Suffering an attack of the "itters" in its home debut of the season, the Barrington Baseball team was trounced Sunday by the Kenosha Brass Workers of the C. I. team, in the first contest here this season. The final score was 7 to 1.

Etters was on the mound for Barrington and pitched the entire route. During his afternoon labors, he was knocked for seven hits, gave up three passes and struck out five men. Eight errors were committed behind him and only two earned runs were scored by Kenosha.

Glenn Turner turned in a pitching masterpiece for the opponents when he held the locals to three hits, allowing one walk and striking out five.

Kenosha opened the scoring in the first inning and pushed a marker across the plate on a hit and dropped fly ball. The hits were rather quiet until the fifth frame, when Barrington got its only run to tie the score temporarily. B. Condit left with a single and was out when Kenosha's pitcher was safe on fielder's choice. McCarthy, local's third sacker, came through with a triple to send Kloppey home with the first and last local run of the game.

Kenosha bounced right back in their half of the sixth and scored two runs to put them out in front again. This was done largely through the assistance of Barrington, two errors being made while Etters was nicked for one hit. The opponents proved they could score unassisted by Barrington and in the eighth inning scored over two runs on two hits and two walks. Two more markers in the ninth ended the scoring for Kenosha with a final score of 7 to 1.

B. Condit got two of Barrington's hits and McCarthy collected the other while Geyer was the hitter for Kenosha, getting two singles and driving two runs.

Next Sunday Barrington will travel again and this time will meet Maple Grove. On the following Sunday another home game will be played here, William Dehinger, manager, announced. An opponent has not been selected.

Defies Law of Gravity in Brick-Dropping Spat

It is generally conceded that Isaac Newton first discovered the law of gravity when he was hit on the head by a falling apple but it remained for Clem Sanders, colored, 51 years old, of Waukegan, to further extend the scientific world by "dropping" a brick on the head of a fellow player with the ground. However, it would probably be better to state that the brick eventually collided with the vulnerable head of Scott Ricks, also colored, of Chicago. Sanders explained in court last week that he and Ricks were just "sprang" around in the street when arrested, and that he didn't pick a brick at Ricks' head merely "just dropping" it at him. Sanders' contribution to society was not singularly impressive and he was fined $25 and costs on charges of being drunk and fighting.

Match Von Schacht and King Kong at Grayslake, Friday

Friedrich Von Schacht, 5 foot 6 inches, 245-pound giant heavyweight wrestling champion of Germany, and King Kong, famous bearded Abyssinian wild-man, will come to grips Friday night, Aug. 5, in the main event of an all-star professional wrestling card at Peg's open-air Grayslake arena.

King Kong 2 weeks ago met Jim McMillen in a return match at Grayslake following a riot a week before. In their second meeting, which developed into one of the most affable and exciting parts, the going was so even that at the end of the hour time limit the referee declared the bout a draw. Last week Von Schacht made his Grayslake debut and disposed of George Manzor so smoothly that fans everywhere requested he be sent against King Kong with the winner to meet McMillen.

The semi-windup of Friday's program may steal the show, Ralph "Ruffy" Silverstein, Illinois state champion and generally recognized as the greatest wrestler in the world, will get his first big time test at Grayslake. He will try to tame rough and tough Rudy Kay, a product of the Chicago gasbush district. Last week rough Rudy went to an hour draw with the great Fred Grubmeier who was especially sent in from the West to tame Rudy, and now as a last resort promoters have enlisted the services of Ruffy Silverstein to try to do what Grubmeier failed.

Bobby Bruns, long a favorite with local wrestling fans, returns from the eastern states after more than a year's absence to wrestle Ralph Garibaldi, popular Italian wrestler, in one of the preliminary goes. In the other preliminary El Sayre, Waukegan's bid to wrestling honors, tangles with Jack Conley, "the Boston Bluffer." El Sayre won his first two starts as a pro and should get some stiff competition from Conley.

Rain Threatens; Youths Give Up Sitting Contest

The tree sitting contest of two Elgin youths was halted Sunday evening when threatening rain clouds drove them from their perch in a tree, where they had remained for 83 hours to set an unofficial endurance record for Elgin. The boys, Frank Reuter, 14 years old, and Ross Williams, 14, started the contest last Thursday along with another companion in a tree in front of Reuter's home. A third boy came down from his leafy perch the following day when he remembered he had to go to work. Cots, made of blankets and ropes, were improvised, and the sitters tied themselves to the trees each night to prevent their falling to the ground while they slept. They could give no reason for starting the endurance contest, which was similar to many kinds of stunts indulged in several years ago.

Operates Heights Barber Shop for Fifty Years

Frank White of Arlington Heights has operated his own barber shop in that community for 50 years, having come there July 19, 1888. In all Mr. White, who is 77 years old, has been in the barbering business for 87 years, and is still actively engaged at his present location. During the years of service in Arlington Heights he has seen many changes made and his shop has long been regarded as a "political listening post" in municipal affairs.

Palatine Township to Sell Relief Warrants

Palatine township has made arrangements to sell a block of relief warrants to a Chicago bond house in order to carry on the financing of relief work. Prior expenses have created debts in excess of current income so that no funds are available to carry on the work.

Hudson's Bay Company Ruled

For nearly 200 years the Hudson's Bay company ruled huge portions of Canada. Wherever it established a trading post it had the right to govern, says the Washington Post. Company men clapped and hummed for some time, bartered with savage Indians for furs. They lived in isolated fort-like posts, often saw other whites only twice a year. They had to be fighters. Disgraced Indians, competing traders frequently attacked their posts.
