Conduct Search for Woodstock Resident; Gone Since Nov. 15

Police authorities were asked Tuesday to aid in a search for Daniel Desmond, 57 years old, former Woodstock postmaster, who has been missing from his home since November 15, four days before he was to have taken an examination for possible reappointment.

Mr. Desmond left a note in which he stated he was going to Chicago to obtain work. No further word has been received from him since.

He served as postmaster at Woodstock for about three years. He was replaced last June by W. J. Todd, the present postmaster.

Mrs. W. E. Noyes, 437 Washington street, contributes this week's recipes for tasty oven dinners and a favorite cooky for the after-school lunch.

CORN PUDDING

- 1 cup milk
- 2 cups corn
- 2 eggs
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2 tablespoons sour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons butter

Mix flour, sugar, salt, softened butter with corn and milk, and add well beaten eggs. Bake in greased casserole about 35 minutes. 350° oven.
