

"Vivacious Lady" Coming to Catlow Sunday, Monday

"The Adventures of Robin Hood" Begins Run Wednesday

Twenty-one nations of the world are represented in the cast of "Four Men and a Prayer," the thrilling screen play which boasts a cast headed by Loretta Young, Richard Greene, George Sanders, David Niven and C. Aubrey Smith. The picture, at the Catlow theatre Friday and Saturday, includes Americans (Miss Young), Englishmen (Messrs. Greene, Sanders and Smith), Scotsmen, Irishmen, Italians, Mexicans, Germans, French, Russians, Arabs, Egyptians and even an Afghan.

Rapidly becoming one of Hollywood's foremost leading men, James Stewart plays one of his most important roles opposite Ginger Rogers, in "Vivacious Lady," the new screen comedy coming to the Catlow Sunday and Monday.

Co-starred with the vivid, Utah-haired star, Stewart is cast as a retiring small-town college professor who, in New York, meets and marries a vivacious nightclub entertainer.

James Ellison, Charles Coburn, Beulah Bondi and Frances Mercer comprise the supporting cast.

Friedilla Lane is almost never recognized off-screen by fans. Recently she accompanied Wynne Morris to a radio station when he appeared on a national broadcast and the next day she received 12 letters from fans informing her that Wayne was two-timing her and had a strange girl with him at the broadcast. This off-screen and on-screen romantic team are now co-starring in "Love, Honor, and Behave," the delightful new comedy coming to the Catlow Tuesday.

Double featured with "Love, Honor and Behave," Tuesday, is "Law of the Underworld," with Chester Morris.

Filed entirely in technicolor, "The Adventures of Errol Flynn," starring the dashing Errol Flynn, comes to the Catlow Wednesday for three days.

Long-awaited, this beloved legend, concerning gallant deeds of a Saxon noble who turned outlaw with a band of followers and plundered the rich Normans to feed and protect the poor and oppressed, has long been a favorite to moviegoers of all ages.

Flynn, who starred in "Captain Blood" and "The Charge of the Light Brigade" heads a cast of hundreds.

The lovely Maid Marion is portrayed by the beautiful Olivia de Havilland. Prince John is played by Claude Rains; Sir Guy of Gisborne is brought to the screen by the sleek Basil Rathbone; King Richard the Lion-Hearted is Ian Hunter; Friar Tuck is the rotund Eugene Pallette; and the lovable little John is sturdy Alan Hale.

For a summer luncheon, we suggest salmon patties, fresh peas, potato chips, combination salad and windblown cake, topped with fresh raspberries and whipped cream.

Here's Mrs. Charles Forsberg's recipe for the patties:

SALMON PATTIES
No. 2 can salmon, flaked.
1 cup bread crumbs.
½ cup milk.
1 egg, beaten.

Mix all ingredients well. Drop by teaspoonful on hot skillet in which butter has been melted. Flatten cakes but do not have them touching. Turn once when browned. Serve hot with garnish of lettuce and lemon wedges sprinkled with paprika.

For the tossed salad, we like to use fresh tomatoes, cucumbers, onion, green pepper, parsley and lettuce.

Mrs. C. D. Herriman contributes the delicious cake recipe:

WINDBLOWN CAKE
3 eggs.
½ cup cold water.
1 ¼ cups sugar.
1 ½ cups cake flour, plus two tablespoons.
½ teaspoon lemon extract.
¼ teaspoon almond extract.
1 teaspoon baking powder.

Mix egg yolks and water. Beat until fluffy high. Add sugar gradually. Fold in flour, baking powder and salt, whites. Bake in angel food pan in 300° oven one hour.

A refreshing drink for this luncheon may be made by combining the juice of two fresh lemons and lemons with sugar, water and a bit of mint.
