

S. F. White Home Scene of Wedding Party Saturday

BARRINGTON HILLS — On Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Miss Wilhelmina White will be married to Thomas Zander Hayward at the home of her father, Selden F. White. Miss White will wear her mother's wedding gown of mousseline and taffeta which has mellowed with the years into a deep ivory. The bride's bouquet will be an old fashioned one of lilies of the valley.

The bridal party will stand in the lovely bay window of the living room at "Out of Bounds Hill" and the decorations will be white geraniums and green laurel.

Mrs. Robert Clark of Glenview, the bride's sister, is to be Miss White's only attendant and will carry red geraniums matching the tiny print of her tall chiffon evening.

Karl Zander, a cousin of the groom, will be Mr. Hayward's best man. The two ushers are Harry W. Zander Jr. and Robert O. Clark. Dr. George Robinson of the Presbyterian Theological seminary will read the marriage service.

The parties scheduled for the week include Mrs. Robert Buckley's luncheon Wednesday for Miss White and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryan's supper party that same evening for both Miss White and Mr. Hayward. On Thursday evening, Mr. Hayward will be host to the bachelor dinner.

Mrs. Carl Lovendahl contributes the following recipe for an old Swedish dish well-liked by her family:

CABBAGE ROLLS
1 head cabbage, loose leaves.
1 cup cooked rice.
1 lb. hamburger or ground beef.
Salt, pepper to taste.
Steam leaves of cabbage in hot water until they lose their crispness. Mix rice, meat and seasoning. Spread out cabbage leaf, add 1 tablespoon of mixture, roll up and tie with string.
Fry cabbage rolls in buttered skillet, turning to avoid burning. When nicely browned, add 1 cup water and let simmer, covered, one hour over low flame.
An ice cold tomato cocktail is excellent with this dish. Have you tried adding 1 can sauerkraut juice to 2 cans tomato juice for your cocktail? A dash of salt, pepper and lemon juice provide "zip" also.

For dessert with this meal we suggest iced coffee and an orange layer cake with orange butter frosting.

Here's the recipe:

ORANGE CAKE
1 cup butter or other shortening.
2 cups sugar.
4 eggs, unbeat.
1 cup orange juice.
1 teaspoon orange rind.
½ teaspoon salt.
3 teaspoons baking powder.
3 cups sifted cake flour.
Cream butter, orange rind and sugar. Add eggs, beating thoroughly. Add other dry ingredients, sifted, alternately with orange juice. Bake in layer pans in moderate oven (375°) for 25 minutes.

Frost with the following mixture:
ORANGE BUTTER FROSTING
3 tablespoons butter.
1 egg yolk.
½ teaspoon salt.
8 cups confectionery sugar.
2½ teaspoons lemon juice.
4 tablespoons orange juice.
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind.
1 tablespoon grated orange rind.
Add rinds to juices and let stand 10 minutes. Cream butter, egg yolk and salt. Blend in sugar and juices. Beat until smooth.

Once Most Fertilized Town
Luxembourg, the capital of the Grand Duchy, was at one time the most fertilized town in Europe. Massive rocks, covered with savage plants, form a pedestal on which the town rises. The Luxembourg Ardennes are a continuation of those of Belgium.
