

Martha L. Kingsley, Daughter of Pioneer Family, 78, Dies

Last rites for Mrs. Martha Leonard Kingsley, daughter of pioneer residents of Barrington, were held at the funeral home, 149 W. Main street, Sunday. Rev. Charles Druse officiated and the body was taken to Rockford for interment. Mrs. Kingsley died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. C. Sleaser of Freeport.

Martha Leonard, the daughter of woodman and Elizabeth Horley Leonard, was born on a large farm near Barrington Center on July 10, 1860. Her parents came from Cambridge, England in 1856. After living on the farm at Barrington Center for several years, Mr. Leonard purchased a farm north of Barrington, which is still owned by members of the family. After the death of the elder Mr. Leonard, Mrs. Leonard moved to Barrington where she resided until her death in 1931.

Martha Leonard received her early education at Barrington Center and White schools and at Watouanda academy. At the age of 16 years she began teaching in a rural school north of Lake Zurich, continuing in other neighboring schools and serving several years as the teacher of the upper grades in the Barrington school. She concluded her education in the O'Leary school on the west side of Chicago.

In 1893 she was married to Frank W. Kingsley of Alden, a teacher in the Chicago schools. They first lived at Maywood and later went to Forest Glen in 1900, where they resided until 1925 when they built a new home in Maywood, spending their summers in Lake Zurich.

Surviving her are three brothers, Albert of Lake Zurich, Will of Barrington and Alfred of Maywood, and six children, Leonard, F. of Chicago, Mrs. Sleaser of Freeport, Wendell L. of Okolona, Miss. Lester H. of Watouanda, Mrs. H. W. Wellman of Moline and Duane C. of Lake Zurich.

Hanover Farmer Ends Own Life Saturday

Despondency believed to have been caused by the death of his wife last May was said to be the cause of William R. Dorman, 65-year-old Hanover township farmer, taking his own life Saturday. He hanged himself in a sto in his farm.

An inquest was held here Monday morning at the funeral home, 149 W. Main street, and then Dorman's body was removed to Elgin. Relatives testified at the inquest that he had brooded considerably over his wife's death.

Funeral services were held at the Immanuel Evangelical church in Bartlett Tuesday afternoon. Rev. F. Schnathorst officiated and burial was in Bluff City cemetery.

Mr. Dorman was born in Jefferson township, Ill., on January 11, 1875 and had been a resident of Hanover township for more than 40 years. He was a member of the school board of school district 44 in Hanover township.

He is survived by a daughter, Ethel; a son, Arthur; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Lucille of Maywood and Mrs. Anna Kosack of Chicago, and a brother, John Dorman of Hanover township.

India Wedding Odd Alike Two Just think of not being able to tell a wedding from a funeral. What a confusing state of affairs. But that is exactly what would happen if one were traveling in Bengal. In the northeastern part of India, along the road to Mount Everest, asserts a writer in the Washington Star. Almost any day one might meet a procession winding through the hills. In its center come of the marchers would be carrying a bundle suspended from two poles. Such a bundle is wrapped carefully in heavy hangings. Nothing much can be made out about it except that it has the shape of a human body. Naturally, the on-looker, if he is a stranger in the country, thinks it is a corpse. But he is mistaken. It is a bride. In this part of India a bride is wrapped over and over again until not a toe or finger is visible. Thus prepared, she is hung between two poles and carried to the new home, where she and her husband are about to set up housekeeping.

Breaks Bone in Foot Mary Alice Coe, daughter of Mrs. Lewis R. Coe, 245 W. Lincoln avenue, is wearing a light cast on her foot and using crutches, due to the unknown breaking of a bone, which occurred several months ago.

Barrington Woman's Club

The Northwest Art League invites members of the Barrington Woman's club and their friends to attend its fourth annual fall exhibit to be held in the Edgewater Beach hotel from Nov. 17 to Dec. 1. A reception will be held Sunday, Nov. 20, at 2 p. m. Tea will be served. Guests of honor will be Mrs. Frank E. Logan, president and founder of Sentinyl in Art; Gertrude Lawrence, star of "Susan and God," and the chorus of the seventh district of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs.

We wish to congratulate our members on their splendid support of our "give a pound" program. The contributions numbered 235 pounds in all, 49 of which were sent to the Chicago Woman's Shelter and 186 to Margaret Eiter-Crecha.

The Red Cross drive has started and will continue until Thanksgiving day. We want to remind you of our continued support. When relief is needed following disaster, when funds and workers are needed to stamp out epidemics, when public health nursing is called for in isolated communities, when the people of this country need help in many other ways the Red Cross is always on hand. This organization continues its fine work in relieving human suffering only if each of us supports it. If you have subscribed in the past, we urge you to renew your membership. If you have never been a member you are urged to become one now.

We wish to remind our members, too, of the Chicago Woman's club meeting which will honor Frances E. Willard and to which we are invited. The meeting will be held at 73 E. 11th street in Chicago, at 2 o'clock, Wednesday, Nov. 23. Janice Bolton will give a monologue "Five Scenes in the Life of Frances E. Willard." Please notify Mrs. R. M. Lines by Nov. 18 if you plan to attend.

Church Maintenance Assn. Elects Heads

Officers were elected by the maintenance association of the Barrington Center church at its annual meeting held Sunday afternoon. The business meeting followed a sermon by Rev. Thomas Rank of Elgin, who was assisted by Rev. E. J. Aiken.

Those elected to office were as follows: Mrs. Flora Keo of Elgin, president; Herman Peterson of Carpentersville, vice president; Miss Kittie Loomis of Barrington township, secretary; J. E. Miller of Elgin, treasurer; Mrs. Florence Smith of Elgin, program chairman.

The religious service began at 2:30 with Rev. Ream and Rev. Aiken in charge. Musical numbers were furnished by a sister and brother quartet, the Misses Janet Bolton and Earl and Aaa App of Elgin, and a duet by Mrs. Flora Haligus and her sister, Mrs. Frances Zeller. The latter sang a memorial song, "When They Ring Those Golden Bells for You and Me," in memory of Eugene Sabin, member of the association who died recently.

At the conclusion of the service, Dr. Charles E. Sharp, president of the association for the last two years, called the meeting to order and the election followed.

In addition to the above-mentioned program, Charles Freeman of Elgin spoke briefly; the Jacob Downs family sang several songs, and community singing was led by Rev. Aiken. A covered-dish supper was enjoyed at the conclusion of the program.

File Damage Suit

The collision of the cars driven by Joseph Krieblich and Nathan A. Knabb both of Chicago, at the intersection of White and Van Buren streets in Des Plaines on August 31 of last year was the cause of a $40,000 damage suit filed in the Cook county circuit court this week. Plaintiffs in the action are Joseph and Rose Krieblich and Charles and Antonia Rechka, occupants of the Krieblich car. Each is asking $10,000 personal injury damages from Knabb.

Receives Reserve Commission

Gordon Dahlov of Barrington has accepted appointment in the officers' reserve corps, according to an announcement made by the war department this week. He is commissioned a second lieutenant in the infantry.
