Church League to Open Season Cage Play Monday Night

Baptist to Clash With Salem; Methodist and St. Paul to Meet

Salem and Baptist quintets will take the floor at 7:45 p. m., Monday night, to open the local church league basketball season. Methodist and St. Paul are to clash in the wind-up tilt of the opening card. As the league is operating with six teams this season, each entrant will play ten games in the double round-robin schedule or two more than in previous years. Two games will be played each week thus leaving two teams off at each session. It was decided at a league meeting to raise the admission price a nickel to 15c for high school and over and 10c for under high school. Probable starting lineups: Baptist Salem Williams F Bierman Rice F Condliff Wallace C Anderson Kincaid G Grabenkorf Clinge G Melners Methodist St. Paul Eiters F Johnson L. Klompfening F W. PRISONER ESCAPES!

Guard Killed By British Officer in Daring Escape from German Prison Camp

HUNTED by all the police in Germany, he found refuge in the heart and home of this lovely little girl of the Berlin streets... Calmly, bravely she faced the police and lied for him—lied for an enemy of her country whom she had known but one short night... Not even the threats of certain death could break her devoted loyalty to him.

You'll be held breathless by this exciting story of escape from a German prison camp. You'll be thrilled and fascinated by this romantic girl who took such desperate chances to hold the only tender, sincere love she ever knew... No wonder the late O. O. McIntyre called it "The most absorbing book I've read in five years."

Because we want you to know Mercury Books, we'll send you this—"Everything Is Thunder," by J. L. Hardy—practically free. We'll supply the book, if you'll pay 10c for postage and handling.

Out of more than 100,000 copies printed we have less than 5,000 left—and they're going fast. Hurry and send a dime for a complete copy of this intensely interesting book of more than 90,000 words. (Sorry—only one to a customer).

Here's my dime. Send me a copy of the Mercury Book "Everything Is Thunder" by J. L. Hardy.

Chicago Contractor Buys 142-Acre Farm From A. Meyer Heirs

M. J. Boyle, Chicago contractor, purchased a 142-acre farm in Fremont township, between Ivanhoe and Wauconda, last week it was announced by David Williams of Wauconda, realtor, who was broker for both parties. The property is crossed by state route 164 east and west and the old Telegraph road north and south. The sellers were heirs of August H. Meyer, a resident of Lake county for many years.

Boyle now has a country estate of approximately 400 acres. A few years ago he bought a large tract of land to the west of the Meyer farm from the Dobner heirs for his home. He remodeled the buildings and is making other improvements, including an artificial lake.

Gets 4-Month Term on Check Charge

R. A. Larkin of Akron, O., fined $100 recently for posting as a doctor in Algonquin. He was arraigned in the McHenry county circuit court at Woodstock Monday morning on charges of passing two worthless checks on Algonquin merchants.

William Carroll, state's attorney, informed Judge William L. Pierce that Larkin had made restitution on the checks which totalled $60 and that he had been in jail four months. Judge Pierce sentenced him to serve four months and gave him credit for time already served.

Larkin paid the balance of the $100 fine and court costs, which amounted to $70.15, and was liberated. He was arrested in Elgin by Algonquin authorities. After cashing $30 checks at an Algonquin drug store and tavern he went to Dundee and presented a check for $50 in payment for a car. The check was refused, however.

It was during the resulting investigations that McHenry county authorities learned that Larkin was not a doctor. He had prepared to open offices in Algonquin prior to his arrest. He was fined $100 a week ago on a charge of violating the state medical act.
