

E. Baude Is Elected Member Chiefs of Police Association

E. W. Baude, chief of police, Barrington, has been elected to membership in the International Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc., which was announced in Chicago today. This association has as its primary function the advancement of standards of police administration through the cooperation of officials in this country and abroad. Affiliation with the IACP indicates that an officer realizes the importance and responsibility connected with his position as a police executive. The International Association of Chiefs of Police, established in 1893, has promoted the use of improved methods of communication, identification, crime prevention and many other police procedures.

128 Acre Tract of Land on Otis Road Sold to K. G. Smith

Kenneth G. Smith, president of the Popesod Company, has purchased the 128 acre tract of land along Otis road between Brinker and Sutton roads, from James V. Watson, according to announcement from Roy Hussagh, realtor. Arrangements are being made to divide this land into several large acreages and resell it. One reason for this transaction was to obtain it as an exclusive, restricted property.

Rites Held Friday for J. A. Granger

Rites were held at Saginaw, Mich. Friday for John A. Granger, father of Robert A. Granger, who was 72 years old, died suddenly Wednesday, Oct. 13 while on a business trip to Saginaw. Cremation took place at White Chapel, Mich. and burial will be at the family plot at Canandaigua, N. Y. later. He was born at Canandaigua, December 22, 1865.

For the past 30 years, his home had been in Chicago where he was owner and founder of John A. Granger and Son, manufacturing representatives. He was well-known in Barrington having visited here frequently.

Mr. Granger is survived by his widow and two sons, John A. Jr. of Philadelphia and Robert of Barrington. Six grandchildren, one brother, Francis of Ft. Wayne, Ind. and a sister, Harriet of Buffalo also survive him.

Junior Woman's Club Is Hostess to 35 at Guest Night Party

The Junior Woman's club entertained 35 members and guests at its guest night party held at the home of Mrs. E. T. Schutt, 239 Coolidge avenue, Tuesday evening. After a short business meeting, a variety of games were played. Refreshments served from an attractive table decorated in fall colors concluded a pleasant evening. Hostesses were Misses Lora Rieke, Verna Kumele, Doris Olson, Marjorie Kemper, Helen Parks, Esther Jeppsen, Ruth Ahrens and Adeline Ost, and Mrs. Harry Berghorn. About 15 club members enjoyed a steak fry at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Higgins at 814 Moore Sunday afternoon. Misses Verna Kumele, Olive Dobson and Frances Mae Swick assisted Mrs. Higgins.

Palatine Man Dies on Highway Truck

John Pankonin, 54 years old, of South Plum Grove avenue, Palatine, died from a heart attack Saturday as he was about a start a state highway truck on route 53. The Blum, with whom Mr. Pankonin worked, was at the controls at the time. Just as he was about to start the truck in motion, Mr. Pankonin attempted to speak and collapsed against Mr. Blum. Artificial respiration was attempted with no results.

Funeral services were held in Chicago Wednesday in charge of the William McKinley lodge No. 876, A. F. & M. Interment was in Acadia Park cemetery. Mr. Pankonin is survived by his widow.

Local Man's Mother Is Buried Friday

on the annexation to Germany, he said that when a person entered the polls he was handed a ballot and told that it was not necessary to mark his decision in the poll booth, but it was all right to do it in front of the police. Those who did enter the poll booths were regarded by the police as being opposed to the plan and were regarded suspiciously.

People of German descent living in the Sudetenland were also punished if they opposed Hitler's seizure of that section from Czechoslovakia. Mr. Cerny visited a hospital in Prague and saw a woman who had been branded by storm troopers because she voiced an unfavorable opinion. Pulling the finger nails from recalcitrants was also another favored trick of Nazis, he said.
