

Plan Feature Acts of Entertainment for Fall Festival

Lions Committee Working to Produce Big Show October 4-8

Several acts of strong, varied entertainment are being arranged by the Barrington fall festival committee...

Arrange More Events at 12th Annual Lake Zurich Picnic Sept. 8

The 12th annual Lake Zurich picnic to be held at Opatry's Grove in Fox River Grove Thursday, Sept. 8...

Postal Service Has Holiday Schedule in Effect Labor Day

Monday, Sept. 5, being a legal holiday, the Barrington post office will be open for receipt and delivery of mail from 9 to 10 a. m. only...

Award $200 for Piece of Property

A jury in the Lake county circuit court Monday awarded Mrs. Mary T. Lowery and her husband, John, $200 for 536 acres of farm land condemned by the county for the improvement of Gilmer road in Fremont township...

Forecast 24 Deaths by Motor Accidents for Holiday Week-End

The greatest volume of traffic in the history of the automobile was predicted for Illinois and Indiana over the Labor Day week-end as approximately 1,500,000 cars take to the highways for holiday trips...

F. F. A. Group From Ela Wins Prizes at Nearby Farm Shows

The Future Farmers of America association of Ela township high school in Lake Zurich contest multiple wins in farm contests held in Elgin and Antioch last week. In every exhibit they entered, the Ela township teams won prizes.

Activity Starts on Rand Rd. Widening Project This Week

The L. D. Linn Company of Springfield and the Central West Construction company, successful bidders for reconstruction work on U. S. route 12 (Rand road) between Lake Zurich and the Cook-Lake county line road, started moving in machinery this week to begin construction.

August Rohde Wins PMA District Title in Neatest Farms Contest

August Rohde of Palatine was hailed this week as the district 7 winner in Chicago's neatest dairy farm contest sponsored by the Pure Milk association. His score was the highest among the eligible farms of Lake and Cook counties in the fifth annual project of the association.

Marijuana, Source of Narcotic, Is Found Growing in Village

A clump of marijuana weed was found in Barrington in a search made by The Review this week to determine if the drug-producing plant grew wild in the neighborhood. The search was prompted by a nation-wide campaign inaugurated recently to destroy marijuana because of its deadly drug qualities.

Cooking School Movie Contains Many Highlights

Going to school in a theatre! It sounds a bit strange, doesn't it? But that is what women of the community will be doing when The Review's motion picture cooking school comes to town on September 22.

Membership Drive Started by Local Woman's Committee

The membership committee of the Barrington Woman's club appointed by Mrs. E. T. Schutt, club president, Wednesday is as follows: Mrs. Edward Schroeder, chairman; Mrs. Leslie Bauman, Mrs. Wilbur Brewer, Mrs. A. Buckingham, Mrs. Howard Harnden, Mrs. Frank Kirchman, Mrs. Floyd Lindberg, Mrs. Raynor Olson, Mrs. Q. T. Pearson, Mrs. H. H. Walbaum and Mrs. Walter W. Wood.

Fall Enrollment in Public School Will Be Started Tuesday

Registration for pupils of the Barrington public schools will be started Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 5, and will be concluded the following day, Wednesday. Class enrollment will start Thursday, Sept. 8. On September 6 and 7, all pupils are expected to report for the payment of rental fees, assignment of lockers, etc., so that regular class work can be started Thursday. Pupils below the Junior and high school departments should be accompanied by their parents. This procedure can also be done for those in the higher two groups.

Small Cottage Burns Near Lake Zurich

A small cottage, still in the process of completion, was destroyed by fire Tuesday evening on route 53, a mile north of Lake Zurich. J. Ritz, owner of the place, and his family were absent when the blaze started. The origin was not determined.

Palatine Man Held for Manslaughter in Auto Accident

Joseph Gahlbeck, 26 years old, of Palatine, was held under $10,000 bond Wednesday on a charge of manslaughter filed against him as an outgrowth of an automobile accident early Sunday morning, in which he was charged with fleeing after striking three persons with his car on Milwaukee avenue near Wheeling.

Revive Woman Taken From Lake; Man Drowned at Cary Saturday

A picnic outing at Wiech's park on Slocum Lake, near Waucougan, became a near-tragedy Sunday for Mrs. Margie Laury, 33 years old, of 2100 N. Halsted street, Chicago, when members of the Waucougan fire department were many minutes to successfully revive her after she had sunk in the lake.

Property Owners Meet With Board on Sewer Project

A meeting of owners of property east of the Northwest highway and adjacent to Main street and members of the village board was held in the council rooms of the village hall Monday night to discuss plans for sewer service in that area.

2.65 Inches of Rain Reported for August

Rainfall during the month of August amounted to 2.65 inches, according to daily records kept at the village treatment plant. Following is the daily fall:

State Department Announces Low Bidders for Higgins Road

The L. D. Linn Company of Springfield and the Central West Construction company, successful bidders for reconstruction work on U. S. route 12 (Rand road) between Lake Zurich and the Cook-Lake county line road, started moving in machinery this week to begin construction.

Release Time Schedule; Also Scale of Rental Fees for Books, Etc.

Registration for pupils of the Barrington public schools will be started Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 5, and will be concluded the following day, Wednesday. Class enrollment will start Thursday, Sept. 8. On September 6 and 7, all pupils are expected to report for the payment of rental fees, assignment of lockers, etc., so that regular class work can be started Thursday. Pupils below the Junior and high school departments should be accompanied by their parents. This procedure can also be done for those in the higher two groups.

Garden Club Will Hear Lecture on Soil Conservation

Mrs. Robert Buckley will be hostess to the Garden Club of Barrington Tuesday afternoon. Marshall Clark, soil analyst of Dundee, will address the group on "Soil Conservation."

Palatine Man Held for Manslaughter in Auto Accident

Joseph Gahlbeck, 26 years old, of Palatine, was held under $10,000 bond Wednesday on a charge of manslaughter filed against him as an outgrowth of an automobile accident early Sunday morning, in which he was charged with fleeing after striking three persons with his car on Milwaukee avenue near Wheeling.

2.65 Inches of Rain Reported for August

Rainfall during the month of August amounted to 2.65 inches, according to daily records kept at the village treatment plant. Following is the daily fall:

Home Reported Sold

According to reports, the A. T. McIntosh estate home on route 63, south of Caesar lake, was sold this week to a Highland Park man. The residence was erected two years ago. Purchase price was not disclosed.

Second Installment Taxes Due Sept. 12

Second installment of Barrington township's real estate taxes will be due and payable in Barrington September 12 to 24, according to a notice received today by Mrs. Pearl Adams and B. A. Schroeder, collector and deputy.

Continuing Picketing Job

Four men from the Chicago Building Trades council today, Thursday, began their 21st day of "peaceful" picketing on the Parker construction job on west Cook-Lake county line road. Carl Billings of Barrington, who is assisted by the Leland ward association, an independent labor group, is the contractor. Work on the Parker home was begun a month ago.

Palatine Man Held for Manslaughter in Auto Accident

Joseph Gahlbeck, 26 years old, of Palatine, was held under $10,000 bond Wednesday on a charge of manslaughter filed against him as an outgrowth of an automobile accident early Sunday morning, in which he was charged with fleeing after striking three persons with his car on Milwaukee avenue near Wheeling.

2.65 Inches of Rain Reported for August

Rainfall during the month of August amounted to 2.65 inches, according to daily records kept at the village treatment plant. Following is the daily fall:

Home Reported Sold

According to reports, the A. T. McIntosh estate home on route 63, south of Caesar lake, was sold this week to a Highland Park man. The residence was erected two years ago. Purchase price was not disclosed.

Second Installment Taxes Due Sept. 12

Second installment of Barrington township's real estate taxes will be due and payable in Barrington September 12 to 24, according to a notice received today by Mrs. Pearl Adams and B. A. Schroeder, collector and deputy.

Continuing Picketing Job

Four men from the Chicago Building Trades council today, Thursday, began their 21st day of "peaceful" picketing on the Parker construction job on west Cook-Lake county line road. Carl Billings of Barrington, who is assisted by the Leland ward association, an independent labor group, is the contractor. Work on the Parker home was begun a month ago.

Property Owners Meet With Board on Sewer Project

A meeting of owners of property east of the Northwest highway and adjacent to Main street and members of the village board was held in the council rooms of the village hall Monday night to discuss plans for sewer service in that area.

2.65 Inches of Rain Reported for August

Rainfall during the month of August amounted to 2.65 inches, according to daily records kept at the village treatment plant. Following is the daily fall:

Home Reported Sold

According to reports, the A. T. McIntosh estate home on route 63, south of Caesar lake, was sold this week to a Highland Park man. The residence was erected two years ago. Purchase price was not disclosed.

Second Installment Taxes Due Sept. 12

Second installment of Barrington township's real estate taxes will be due and payable in Barrington September 12 to 24, according to a notice received today by Mrs. Pearl Adams and B. A. Schroeder, collector and deputy.

Continuing Picketing Job

Four men from the Chicago Building Trades council today, Thursday, began their 21st day of "peaceful" picketing on the Parker construction job on west Cook-Lake county line road. Carl Billings of Barrington, who is assisted by the Leland ward association, an independent labor group, is the contractor. Work on the Parker home was begun a month ago.

Palatine Man Held for Manslaughter in Auto Accident

Joseph Gahlbeck, 26 years old, of Palatine, was held under $10,000 bond Wednesday on a charge of manslaughter filed against him as an outgrowth of an automobile accident early Sunday morning, in which he was charged with fleeing after striking three persons with his car on Milwaukee avenue near Wheeling.

2.65 Inches of Rain Reported for August

Rainfall during the month of August amounted to 2.65 inches, according to daily records kept at the village treatment plant. Following is the daily fall:

Home Reported Sold

According to reports, the A. T. McIntosh estate home on route 63, south of Caesar lake, was sold this week to a Highland Park man. The residence was erected two years ago. Purchase price was not disclosed.

Second Installment Taxes Due Sept. 12

Second installment of Barrington township's real estate taxes will be due and payable in Barrington September 12 to 24, according to a notice received today by Mrs. Pearl Adams and B. A. Schroeder, collector and deputy.

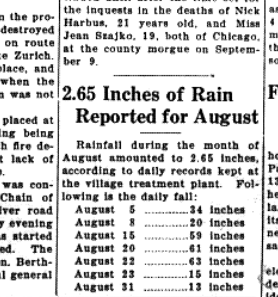

Home reported sold.

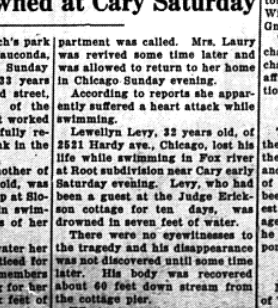

Palatine man held for manslaughter in auto accident.

Small cottage burns near Lake Zurich.

Man drowned at Cary Saturday.

Property owners meet with board on sewer project.

Property Owners Meet With Board on Sewer Project

A meeting of owners of property east of the Northwest highway and adjacent to Main street and members of the village board was held in the council rooms of the village hall Monday night to discuss plans for sewer service in that area.

2.65 Inches of Rain Reported for August

Rainfall during the month of August amounted to 2.65 inches, according to daily records kept at the village treatment plant. Following is the daily fall:

Home Reported Sold

According to reports, the A. T. McIntosh estate home on route 63, south of Caesar lake, was sold this week to a Highland Park man. The residence was erected two years ago. Purchase price was not disclosed.

Second Installment Taxes Due Sept. 12

Second installment of Barrington township's real estate taxes will be due and payable in Barrington September 12 to 24, according to a notice received today by Mrs. Pearl Adams and B. A. Schroeder, collector and deputy.

Continuing Picketing Job

Four men from the Chicago Building Trades council today, Thursday, began their 21st day of "peaceful" picketing on the Parker construction job on west Cook-Lake county line road. Carl Billings of Barrington, who is assisted by the Leland ward association, an independent labor group, is the contractor. Work on the Parker home was begun a month ago.

Palatine Man Held for Manslaughter in Auto Accident

Joseph Gahlbeck, 26 years old, of Palatine, was held under $10,000 bond Wednesday on a charge of manslaughter filed against him as an outgrowth of an automobile accident early Sunday morning, in which he was charged with fleeing after striking three persons with his car on Milwaukee avenue near Wheeling.

2.65 Inches of Rain Reported for August

Rainfall during the month of August amounted to 2.65 inches, according to daily records kept at the village treatment plant. Following is the daily fall:

Home Reported Sold

According to reports, the A. T. McIntosh estate home on route 63, south of Caesar lake, was sold this week to a Highland Park man. The residence was erected two years ago. Purchase price was not disclosed.

Second Installment Taxes Due Sept. 12

Second installment of Barrington township's real estate taxes will be due and payable in Barrington September 12 to 24, according to a notice received today by Mrs. Pearl Adams and B. A. Schroeder, collector and deputy.

Continuing Picketing Job

Four men from the Chicago Building Trades council today, Thursday, began their 21st day of "peaceful" picketing on the Parker construction job on west Cook-Lake county line road. Carl Billings of Barrington, who is assisted by the Leland ward association, an independent labor group, is the contractor. Work on the Parker home was begun a month ago.