

B' Club Banquet Hears Frank Hill, Pupils on Sports

Letters Awarded to Football
Basketball and Track
Stars

The Harrison high school "B" club held its annual banquet Friday night in the basement of the Methodist church with team members and spectators. Presenting: Frank Hill, Northwest; Alvin Schwartz, track; Andy Bickel, basketball; and Fred Dine, basketball star from Notre Dame, and now coach at the Harrison high school, and Fred V. Chicago, assistant coach of the same institution, were the featured speakers. Fred Clark, coach of the "B" club, presided.

Fred Clark awarded certificates of letters to the athletes and announced that K. Kampert, voted as the football star of the year by last fall's squad, will have his name engraved on the plaque institute this year for recognition of his achievements in football and basketball plays. Dick Wilson was named as the star of the basketball squad.

Letters were made by faculty members Herbert Bricker, T. C. Hufford, William Wachs, and W. H. Bradford, principal of the Harrison school. Mr. Clark introduced the band and the orchestra. Mr. Bradford presented the check which consists of $100. W. H. Bradford and William Wachs, who were accompanied by Kenneth Gray, played the piano. The following songs were sung as the dinner set underway.

Tavern Bandits Caught in Chase Given Jail Terms

Four Sentenced to Vandalia,
County Court Says

Four of the five youths captured March 9 after an early-morning automobile chase by two Lake County deputies, were sentenced to a term of one year in the local penitentiary at Vandalia, Ill., today by Judge Perry L. Wright. The two other youths were convicted on a charge of illegal possession of a firearm.

George Laney, 21, of Barrington, and the leader of the gang reported to have had several letters in the rural area of Cook county. He was released to eight months.

Woods Thomas, 17, of 1418 Wood Street, Chicago, and Eddie Valentine, 17, of 1449 S. 8th Avenue, Chicago, were sentenced to 180 days in jail.

The five boys were caught shortly after 3 o'clock on March 9 following an alarm which was given during the chase. Cook county lawyers were robbed. A police radio broadcast from the pursuing officer, who was arrested and re-broadcast from three other officers.
