GENERAL MOTOR

THE ENGINEERING STANDOUT OF THE YEAR

When you know who buys a car and why—you have a pretty sound idea of whether that car is for you. Here's that information about Pontiac. It's popular with almost everyone, but the important thing is that included among Pontiac owners are an astonishingly large proportion of engineers.

Why is that true? This man thinks that no car on earth is better engineered... because it is built by an engineer—ing staff which has its credit no less than 90 great advancements in automobile design.

Yes, you can take it from impartial engineers—Pontiac is the engineering standard of the year. And you don't need anyone's advice to tell you that it's a leader in looks and action too—in minutes of the best tools you use, that's all these facts together and the net result is this: By anybody's standard, Pontiac, General Motors' second lowest-priced car, is America's biggest bargain.
